THE HEADMASTER'S PRIZE DAY ADDRESS

As you may have surmised, this has been an exceptional year. The credit must be shared among many.

May I begin my remarks with a few words of thanks and praise.

For their devotion, far beyond the call of duty, to matters academic, para-academic and extra-curricular, on behalf of the Governors, on my behalf and on the behalf of our 450 students, may I express my deep gratitude to our 40 teachers.

And now a look at this year's salient events, its gains, its losses and its accomplishments.

This past year our students were exposed to a number of cultural events, including performances by the Young Peoples' Theatre, the Ontario Ballet Company, the National Tap Dancing School, the Hamilton Philharmonic Brass Band and the Epic String Quartet. We intend to continue with this programme and some bookings for the coming year have already been finalized.

1987-88 saw the rebirth of the SAC Choir under the direction of Mr. Stephen Harper. We are very encouraged by its progress and confident that it will grow in importance.

This year's school musical, under the direction of Lee and John Clements was, as usual, a resounding success.

Our Head of Debating, Mr. Rupert Ray, was re-elected Vice President of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Student Debating Federation. I should like publicly, to thank Mr. John Morrissey, one of our parents, for the help he gave in preparing our debaters for several of our tournaments.

At the risk of taxing the attention span of some of our youngsters, I would like, for our graduates, to briefly refer to 1899 and to examine with them the St. Andrew's College of 1988. We are so caught up in our daily activities and so intent on preparing for the next class, the next event, the next year, that we seldom take time to examine our roots or to reflect upon the original expectations of St. Andrew's College's founding fathers.

In 1899, the founders of this school declared, and I quote:

"S.A.C. has been founded because it is believed that it will meet the want felt by many in the past by offering advantages that cannot be very well secured under the ordinary school system. Realizing the necessity of being well to the front in the quality of instruction given, no effort will be spared to maintain a high standard of efficiency in all branches of scholarship and teaching. In such a college as St. Andrew's, the individual can be better recognized and brought into more direct contact with his masters, and thus reap considerably more benefit."

The legacy that St. Andrew's has inherited is a duty not only to foster academic excellence, but to minister also to the whole child in all aspects of his being, to instill a particular code of ethics and a set of values. That was the cornerstone of the school's purpose and function. Eighty-nine years ago, J.K. MacDonald, the first Chairman of the Board, stated clearly, and I quote, "It is by no means enough that a boy be intellectually trained. Most important of all is the moral welfare and growth of the lad fast approaching to manhood."

From the start, athletics was viewed as a central part of the educational process at St. Andrew's, which encouraged games and sports as instruments of character formation and morality. The first college prospectus declared that "If the work of life is to be done under the stress of modern conditions, the body must be cared for in youth, and every precaution taken to develop and maintain constitutional strength."

With these precepts in mind, St. Andrew's College was launched in 1899, at Chestnut Park, in Rosedale, Toronto.

One of the original teachers, Dr. Percy Robinson, a staff member who remained as classics master for nearly half a century, recalled "In that Scotch-Canadian soil of Chestnut Park, St. Andrew's flourished and took root like a thistle in a plowed field. In a surprisingly short time it meant something to be a St. Andrew's boy."

And now, class of 1988 - what does it mean to you to be a St. Andrew's boy? What of the present St. Andrew's College, with its location in Aurora?

Let me ask you graduates:

"Do you realize fully the importance of learning?"

"Have you developed lasting friendships here?"

"Can you think of another setting more conducive than this one - where such deep-rooted friendships could have been fashioned?"

"Have you learned to live harmoniously with people of different backgrounds, different traditions?"

"Have you learned the importance of keeping fit?"

"Have you learned to give orders; have you learned to take orders?"

"Do you appreciate the sacrifices your parents have made, financial sacrifices as well as the sacrifice of allowing you to be away from home most of each day and much of each year?"

"Do you have a sense that your school has provided you with a focal point that will remain for the rest of your lives?"

"Will you want to come back here? We hope so."

"Has the school taught you to seek excellence in all you do? If you really seek excellence, no one will ever strip you of your accomplishments, and of your personal growth."

"Have you acquired a sense of responsibility, a sense of fair play, a sense of right and wrong? It is our prayer that you have."

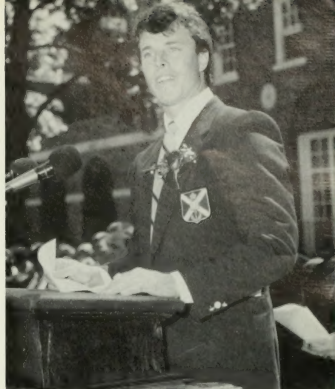

Living as we are in the middle of a second technological revolution, clearly, the academic life of a school must be of the soundest. We hope yours is, and that it will remain so. But the acquisition of knowledge is not an end in itself, for education is, as it has been said, what survives when what has been learned has been forgotten.

What is important is that you and your school should never lose sight of your basic raison d'être. All this elaborate provision for the "moral, mental, and physical development" of a St. Andrew's gentleman rests ultimately on a spiritual foundation, the conviction that in the minds of teachers and students, knowledge, fair play, responsibility and above all, service to others, have their own standards of integrity.

It is enough that the chapel spire of St. Andrew's College may long continue to look down on a constant procession of young men seeking truths upon which the good of society must ultimately be founded.

Graduates, you are ready. Now go out there and show them.

N.B. - Due to space limitations, those portions of Mr. Redard's speech which refer to people or institutions represented elsewhere in the book have been excerpted to the appropriate pages. -Ed.

Waterloo Students

There were four students from Waterloo's Co-operative Programme this year. Each spent three months coaching, tutoring, teaching and enriching the life of St. Andrew's in many ways.

Duncan Sim, from the Isle of Wight, coached Rugby, and took on teaching duties as well.

Geoffrey R. Smith, Esq.

It has been said (just this morning, actually, - in the rough draft for this article) that the Mister Smith phenomenon can be understood best by someone for whom he has done something. Practically everyone who attended the school in the past 24 years has a prodigious grasp of it. Here is a man who, while teaching students in a friendly, down-to-earth manner, has a sense of humour in every situation, and more importantly, a sense of respect for every student. His knowledge of Chemistry is rivaled only by his knowledge of almost every other subject in existence. Between teaching and his numerous other roles, official and otherwise, he always has time to help out a perplexed student, straighten out a post-secondary education gone west, or just talk.

Were he to read this now, he'd probably say something like 'Alright look, quit the verbal Fred Astaire and get to the point.' We will: he is responsible for the oracular guidance (!) of scores of young Andreans' post-secondary lives, and remains a friend to even more. He has kept borders from revolting and dayboys from regressing into ochlocracy.

Only someone who knows him can grasp how much he has done and the staggering magnitude of it/him. All who do know him will miss him, and by accepting the post of Headmaster at King's Edgell in New Brunswick, he ensures that many others will not miss the Mr. Smith phenomenon. We speak for the whole school when we wish him as much success in his future as he has sparked in others.

The editor would like to point out, firstly, that he received absolutely no remuneration from GRS for the above article, and secondly, that this article contains 42 words of 8 letters or more, and was written by two dayboys. (co-author - Steven W. Dengler (S.A.C. 1980-87), whose only request was a Review-budget pizza lunch for inspiration.)

GEOFFARDY SMITH

He can be found in a white coat on the top floor of McLaughlin Hall.

Who is Captain Team Chem?

As a youngster he was a prototype Yuppie, driving a Kharman-Ghia, a Porsche, a Mercedes and a Rabbit; when the Hondas flooded Yuppiedom, he took to his bike.

Who is "Stud"?

He was a benevolent Housemaster distributing TLC in Memorial House for thirteen years.

Who is 'Dad'?

This man runs a tidy office.

Who is Mr. Clean?

He calls his wife Mrs. Clean, Ralph, Martha, She Who Must Be Obeyed; he tells the boys, "If I want nagging, I'll go home."

Who is Virginia Smith's uxorious husband?

He's a ham.

Who is VE3 KCE?

He uses his radio skills at regattas and parades and cadets; he expands our social conscience by leading volunteers to the Blood Donor Clinic and the Scott Mission.

Who is Capt. G. R. Smith CD?

He wears Size Thirties and looms 6'4" so he can lipdash the boys: "Dayboy!" "Perch and twirl!" "I'll rip your arm off and hit you with the wet end!"

Who is GRS?

He is an omnivorous reader, demolishing books and magazines by the metre at 1200 wpm; he's the staff expert on movies and sports trivia and restaurants and good bargains in left-handed tweeters.

Who is Geoffrey?

In his special off-beat style he is the most helpful man at SAC. If you want your timetable changed, your plumbing soldered, your career guided, your duty covered, your ankle taped, or your house moved, he's your man, he's your friend.

Who is Geoff?

Longfellow began a poem: 'Under the spreading chestnut tree/The village smithy stands./The ____ a mighty man was he.'

Who is SMITH?

Of particular significance to all of us is the appointment of Mr. Geoff Smith as Headmaster of King's Edgell in Windsor, Nova Scotia. If there is one person who is all things to all people, Geoff is the one. A most loyal and competent Assistant Headmaster, 13 years of superb leadership as Housemaster of Memorial House, Chemistry teacher extraordinaire, and over his 24 years with us, coach of innumerable football, basketball, and rugby teams, bi-weekly rugby referee, accomplished cyclist, avid reader, short wave ham radio operator and computer expert. And now what distinguishes him from the rest of us: his superior intellect, his absolute selflessness and his pied-piper's qualities. King's Edgell is very fortunate. With his wife Ginny, who forms the better half of a formidable team, the Smiths will undoubtedly render yeoman services to their new school and we will sorely miss their presence and their friendship. Please join me in extending our best wishes to both Geoff and Ginny.

ALAN B. JACKSON, ESQ.

We at S.A.C. have come to know Mr. Alan Jackson, Housemaster of Ramsey House, as the Patron Saint of the dayboys, Math teacher par excellence and a superb coach of championship football and OFFSA hockey winners.

For the past ten years he has been the confidante of countless and mentor of many. He has been in the forefront of almost every school activity. From the Social Committee to the leadership of our proud Highland Cadet Corps, he has touched many facets of experience here and has enriched the school in countless ways.

In the classroom, his unflagging patience and warm and friendly guidance, have lighted the way for hundreds of young people. Those who have been fortunate enough to take his classes have been inspired by his expert instruction and steadfast devotion. For his students, Mr. Jackson enthusiastically accomplished that difficult task of making learning challenging and fun.

Mr. Jackson will continue his teaching career at Country Day School where we wish him the best of success and warmly bid Mrs. Jackson, and young children, Hart and Emma, the best that the future will bring.

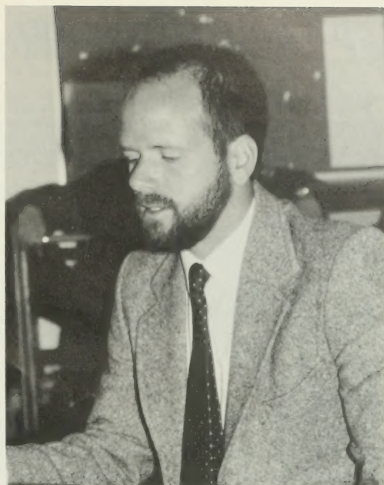

Our school has been privileged to have counted Mr. Jackson among its teaching staff. A fond farewell and hearty thanks are in order for the many contributions he has made while at St. Andrew's College. Certainly we shall miss him.

- S. Treasure, Esq.

A very capable and respected master has elected to pursue his teaching and administrative career at the Country Day School. Mr. Al Jackson has spent his last 10 years at St. Andrew's. He is recognized for his winning ways, be they in the Math classrooms, on the playing fields, as Housemaster of Ramsey House, or in his capacity as Commanding Officer of our Cadet Corps. Alan has been in the forefront of just about every aspect of our school's life and has given impetus and direction to our social and service programmes. Our best wishes accompany Al and his wife, Jody, on their journey down the road.

- excerpt from Mr. Bedard's Prize Day Speech

J.E. FISH, ESQ.

Our thanks to Mr. Ted Fish who is relocating in Northern Ontario with his already substantial family. We thank him for his contributions in academics and athletics and for his service as advisor to the Social Committee.

-excerpt from Mr. Bedard's Prize Day Speech

JULIAN GREENWOOD, ESQ.

We bid farewell to Mr. Julian Greenwood, who returned to us for one year, on leave from the practice of Law in British Columbia. He is a true Renaissance man whose lasting imprints on many aspects of our school's life will be felt for years to come. The Greenwood family is heading back to B.C. where Mr. Greenwood will advise the British Columbia Treasury Department on taxation matters.

(b. 87/10/17)
(b. 87/11/26)
(b. 88/03/23)
(b. 88/06/26)

To this point, 3 experienced teachers have been hired for September.

You have already heard the Rev. Bob Arril, who gave the opening prayer. Aside from his duties as Chaplain, he will assist with university guidance and will teach French.

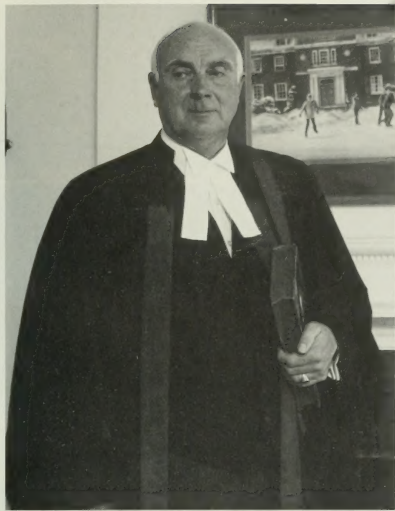

Mr. Gregory Shields, presently at the International School of Brussels will join the Science Department.

Mr. Stuart Swan returns to teach Geography from one year at that other school down in the city.

It should be mentioned that Mr. Al Dunford resumes his teaching after spending a sabbatical year of further studies in Math and Physics at York University.

A special welcome is extended to Mr. Roger Caldwell, an Old Boy (Class of '84) who will be our English tutor and to Mr. David Dawson, who will be our resident Math tutor. Both will be with us for the full academic year.

ROBERT W. MEAGHER, ESQ.

I'll do my best to assemble some reflections on the many moons which ante-dated my swearing-in as a Judge of the Federal Court of Citizenship.

Your agent's pre-Andean life was a mild melange of undramatic happenings; a gentle boyhood in Montreal's west end where he attempted to rule, without success, three younger, louder, and more talented brothers; the usual pre- and post-pubescent days of high school and College of intense love affairs with the Detroit Red Wings, the Montreal Maroons, Howie Morenz, Camillien Houde, Pepsi and Mae Wests...

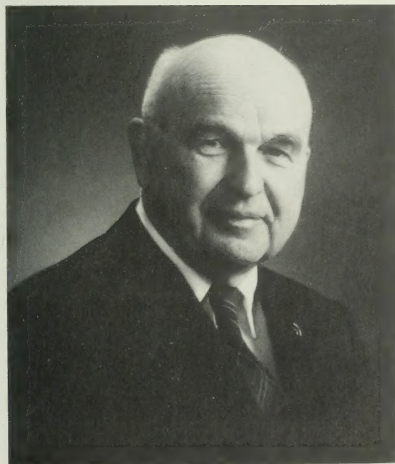

Sixteen wonderful years in room 34 with Wawa, Pete Pobahushy, Greenie Yellowie, BORK and about a thousand fine young Andeans who left me a much better man than they found me.

May I mention years of frenzied fun with things percussive? Dare I allude to an infamous pink dinner jacket?

But these things will all fade, I know. That's the nature of things. People don't fade. And the people come with me to the Toronto Court and the Circuit Courts of Newmarket, Barrie, Peterborough and Owen Sound.

What's for Ward? Perhaps just another classroom with people of hope who want a chance, people of dreams who want peace, people of today who want a secure tomorrow. Is that so different from St. Andrew's?

- excerpted from an article which appears in full in Volume 31, Number 2 of The Andean.

LLOYD MACPHERSON, ESQ.

It would be difficult to find an area around the school which does not bear his mark. He counted spats in the cadet store, beakers in the science wing, beds in Fourth House, credits in the office, spotlights on stage, and boys everywhere. He revealed the history of the school to three thousand new boys on Day One. He filled out thousands of timetables and university applications. He was the voice of S.A.C. on the P.A. system and at Cadet Inspections. Headmasters may come and go, but as Head of Science, first Housemaster of Fourth House, Member of the Board of Governors, and Assistant Headmaster, he was Mr. S.A.C.

At the age of forty came the kind of revelation that happened to St. Paul on the road to Damascus - L.C.M. found Scotland! He lost his hair under a tam; his girth increased to fill a kilt; he intoned himself with Claymore and Claybeg, Crummock and Jabot, Schist and Schlager. He visited Scotland a score of times, becoming chairman of Clan MacPherson and celebrating many wassails.

At S.A.C., he embellished the Scottish Fact, with clans and pipes and drambui, epitomized by the new boy's traumatic indoctrination to the haggis on the annual St. Andrew's Night dinner.

And anyone finding E.R.'s tough should be thankful he wasn't pushing a convertible around the quad, with the Laird stabbing the brakes every now and then to offer resistance.

Away from the school his interests were wide and curious. He was a man of the Church in three ways: in name (Son of the Parson), as an elder of the United Church, and as the owner of two residential churches.

L.C.M. was always interested in protocol and ceremony, ancestry and heraldry; he knew all about lions couchant and bars sinister; he had his own family crest, and he was responsible for the school gaining its legitimate coat of arms. One of his delights was the stage. He theatre hopped in Stratford, Toronto, New York and London. Appearing in many shows himself, he was an expert in stagecraft and prop making. On the school, he had a string of directing credits.

From all Andeans, we revere the memory of the Spirit of S.A.C., the Laird of Pottageville, our own 49th Highlander, Lloyd Campbell MacPherson.

- Lloyd Campbell MacPherson passed away in Nova Scotia on March 25th 1988. The above article, by David Timms Esq., appeared in the 1982 Review on the occasion of Lloyd's retirement after twenty five years at the school.

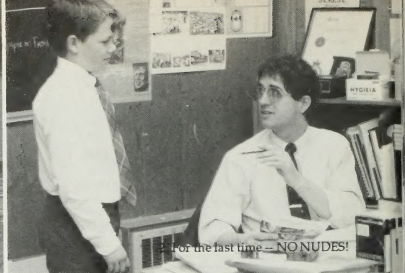

The school community was saddened this year by the death of Lloyd McPherson. Lloyd served as a trusted and devoted teacher, Housemaster and Assistant-Headmaster over a span of 25 years. Lloyd was honoured at a memorial service in our Chapel on April 17 in a fitting farewell to this great Andean.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Chairman Peter D. G. Harris, The Honourable Lincoln M. Alexander, Mrs. Anne Bedard

The authority of the Board of Governors flows from the Special Act of the Ontario Legislature under which the College is incorporated.

In that Act, the Governors are charged with responsibility for the operations, properties, and finances of the College.

Essentially, the "Corporation" can be seen as a perpetual trust dedicated to maintaining a school of excellence, a school of distinctive character. The Governors, then, are really the trustees of this trust, committed to its long term interests.

"Educating" imposes a profound responsibility. To be done well, it requires practitioners with the highest levels of professional competence. It is not a game for amateurs!

The Board of St. Andrew's is solely and absolutely responsible for the selection of, and the support of the Headmaster. That in any school is absolutely the critical decision! In the long run, the school will be as good as, or as weak as that appointment. In that appointment and in that support, lies the Board's control of the quality, the direction, and the character of the school. The Board must understand these operations, and yet stand away from them. Board involvement in educational decisions is the certain road to turmoil. Board involvement in the finances, properties and long range thinking, is the proper fulfillment of its obligations.

ST. ANDREW'S COLLEGE ASSOCIATION

The St. Andrew's College Association began as the Old Boys Association in 1904-1905 under J.L. Ferguson, its first President. Current President is W. S. Marshall '67 who is General Manager of SLH Transport Inc., a subsidiary of Sears.

The Association now also includes parents and past parents, plus friends of the school. Representatives from each group are appointed to the S.A.C. Association Council, which meets periodically throughout the year.

Year representatives are appointed from each graduation class and they are primarily responsible for keeping contact with the school, helping with reunions and other functions of the Association.

The Association Council co-ordinates Homecoming in the Fall and the Association Dinner in the Spring. As well, the S.A.C. Business Club was launched in 1986 to provide Andreans with a forum to meet and exchange ideas with Andreans in similar or vastly diverse careers. The Business Club Luncheons are presently held three times each year.

The Association also co-ordinates various Old Boy participatory sports events throughout the year.

Jim Herder '64 is currently Secretary-Treasurer of the Association, a post he took up in September 1985. He was President of the Association 1979-82, a position which was also filled by his predecessor, Jim Hamilton '33, between 1948 and 1950.

Representatives of the Graduating Class of 1988

(L. to R.) Adam Neal, Anthony Reid, Adam Avruskin and Mike Brewer join Jim Herder '64.

LADIES' GUILD

The Ladies' Guild of St. Andrew's College was established in 1935, in order to bring mothers and guardians of students in closer contact with one another and with the school, to contribute in a practical way to the welfare of the students and to provide financial assistance in the form of scholarship assistance.

It has been an exceptional year for another one of our constituencies: the Ladies' Guild. We are indebted to Past President Gayle McPherson, her executive and all the members whose presence and successes have enhanced and nurtured our every day life. Among their many achievements, let us mention the refurbishing of the Flaville House Common Room, and the coordination of the premier Social event of the year - Flight of Fantasy.

At the end of the 1960's the members of Clan Wallace instituted an award in the name of Lloyd MacPherson which would be presented annually to the person whether student or staff member who had made the greatest contribution to clan spirit around the school.

This year we recognize not one but two very special people - Isabel and Roy McNichol. Day in and day out the year around visitors to the campus are reminded of what Mr. McNichol does to keep the grounds beautiful and in good repair. Few people, if they are not Andreans would be aware of the contribution made by Roy's wife, Isabel (affectionately known as 'Mabel'), to the fostering of good spirit. Exactly fifty years ago Isabel came to St. Andrew's to work in the Dining Hall. In due course she married Roy, a young groundskeeper she met here and she has run the Tuck Shop ever since.

On RETIREMENT

"I've had enough of gardening - I'm just about ready to throw in the trowel." - Anon.

"I should like to pay a special tribute to Roy and Isabel McNicol and to offer them the school's best wishes on the occasion of their retirement.

Isabel has been employed in the Great Hall and in the Tuck Shop for 50 years, since 1938. Whenever the school wakes up in the morning, be it in the throes of a winter storm or in the brilliant sunshine of the summer, Roy has already made sure that the grounds are in immaculate condition. McNicol Hall, where the school vehicles are stored, will be a reminder of the invaluable services he has provided. He has been a hard working and devoted Head Groundsman. This marks the end of Roy's 39th year at the school."

S.A.C. IN FRANCE

When I was given the chance to write this article, I was thrilled! I was now able to tell everyone what an incredible experience the S.A.C. in France program is. I believe that what one learns from this adventure about himself is much more important than learning simply the French language. That's just the tip of the iceberg. I'm sure that all of us that went came back a little older and more independent. Making decisions and solving problems on your own for the first time is always a learning experience, always difficult! Living in France is in no sense of the word easy. But what is? The opportunities of seeing a foreign country, learning a foreign language, and meeting lots of warm, caring people greatly outweigh the small discomforts of missing a few math classes. What a chance to grow! To develop! That's what we're here for. I encourage everyone to give this program a great deal of thought. It's an incredible opportunity. Don't let it slip away. On behalf of all of the boys who went, I would like to thank everyone who made our trip possible.

Scott Bryk is one of ten students who spent five months in France during the school year.

ESPANA

Once again, the Geography Department heeded the call of Iberia. The second week in May saw 16 students, Coach and Mr. Halstead visiting Madrid, Toledo, Seville, Granada and the Costa del Sol. They did lots of walking and developed a genuine feel for the country.

The Alhambra palace in Granada, the tomb of Christopher Columbus and the old town of Seville are all part of the historic culture. They saw the innumerable apartment complexes which house the millions who have fled rural poverty in the last 30 years and also came to understand how much economic progress Spain is making.

This year, they flew KLM and made a pit stop in Amsterdam. The weather wasn't the greatest but that didn't spoil anything. Europe can't be missed.

DEBATING

This was a busy and productive year in our world of debating. We were represented in twenty-six different tournaments both social and serious during the course of the year.

A welcome arrival on the scene was Mr. Stephen Harper who had previously given support to debaters at Crescent School. During the fall he travelled to Gananogue with Blair Leggett, Patrice Bansa, Robert O'Neill and Myles Wilson for a two-day Ontario Student Debating Union workshop. During the spring he sponsored our Southern Ontario Mock Assembly model U.N. delegation consisting of Rod Boothby, Sean Fleming, Scott Kelly and Kevin Worry. They represented the Congo and took part in Security Council deliberations. In the fall we also took part in the annual Independent Schools Public Speaking Tournament which was hosted this year closer to home, at Branksome Hall in Toronto. Our representatives were Robert Meinzer, Sean Nazerali and Derek Robinson.

During Expansion Week, Close to a dozen of our debaters took part in a unique program with debating students of Roxbury Latin School in Massachusetts, living with families there, attending classes at the oldest independent school in North America, competing in an American tournament in New Hampshire at Phillips Exeter Academy, and being introduced to the city of Boston. It is our fond hope that Mr. Philip Hanson and the boys of R.L.S. will be able to pay us a visit in the foreseeable future.

Later in November we sent a strong team consisting of Michael O'Connor and Kevin Worry to the National Tournament organized by the Alberta Speech and Debate Association in Edmonton. There we placed second highest of all the parliamentary teams from across the country.

Mention should be made of the good-humoured leadership we received from our executive members: president, Oliver Herbst and the three vice-presidents, Adam AvRuskin, James Bratton and Kevin Worry. Adam looked after the social fixtures we had, James did a great deal to encourage new debaters in grades seven and eight, and Kevin did everything in his power to maintain our schedule of intramural debates. Here support wasn't always forthcoming from the houses, but his efforts were appreciated.

No year is without its down sides. House debating has already been mentioned. Not enough was done for those at the grade nine and ten level. We shall hope with the help of Mr. Harper to do more for our juniors next year. Bilingual debating was not as healthy this year as last, when we had Ms. Cholette's assistance. With help from Rev. Robert Arril who will be on staff next year, we'll develop here again.

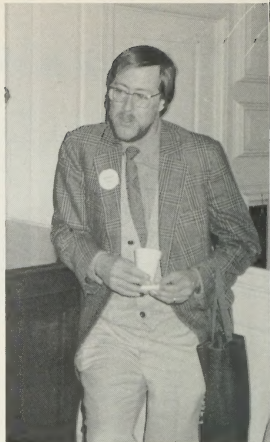

In Fulford League competition we were very much in the middle of the pack of seventeen schools and this falls short of our usual standard. Oliver Herbst, Michael O'Connor and Ken Cameron placed very well, and Kevin Worry placed first in the Senior division at the Spring Tournament. Over the whole year Upper Canada College regained the Fulford Trophy for which we congratulate them. A special thank-you goes to parent Mr. John Morrissey for the help he gave in preparing our boys for several of their tournaments. Without him, we wouldn't have been nearly as good as we were.

In the Spring term, Kevin Worry won the right to go to the annual Provincial Debating Seminar in Toronto. At the same time Head of Debating Rupert Ray was attending the National Seminar in St. John's, Newfoundland. Here he was re-elected as Vice-President of the Board of Directors of the Canadian Student Debating Federation.

Happily, a great many of our members gained in experience and skill during the year and there were bright new discoveries. A few which spring to mind are Alistair Cowper, Thijs Spoor, Patrice Bansa, Hugh Barton, Daniel Thwaites, and Chris Mantrop. Steve Rostein had the unusual experience of taking part in two different Fulford tournaments, one for us and one as a stand-in for an absent Ridley speaker. He was the recipient of the Brian Mitchell Prize for our most proficient intermediate debater. For reasons that must be clear Kevin Worry was our most successful senior debater and was the recipient of the Brooks Trophy on Prize Day.

Already Chris, Rod, Curtiss Boyington, Mike, and Kevin have been meeting to discuss next year's program. We have some excellent debaters coming up and we look forward to next year with optimism and enthusiasm.

The Illustrious Rupert J. Ray, Esq.

GREASE
by Jim Jacobs & Warren Casey

GREASE

Although Grease was a break from the more traditional themes of musicals in the past, it was an outstanding success: the audience laughed in all the right places. Perhaps the biggest advantage to being involved in Grease was the evolution of a tight group of friends who shared many memorable moments together. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. "C" and to the many others who made it a possibility.

PASSION, POISON, AND PETRIFICATION

We had a fun time staging George Bernard Shaw's melodramatic spoof Passion, Poison and Petrification for the ISL Drama Festival at UCC in April. We presented this in front of the school at a Wednesday assembly and it never quite caught fire. But at the festival, everything clicked. "Highly enjoyable - great fun - great start - good set - atmosphere beautiful - congratulations -" - such were the comments of the Adjudicator Michael Burgess.

Ken Cameron portrayed Innocence as Lady Magnesia, Mike Paletta was her strong husband, and Adam Neal capped all his SAC roles with a Dandy bed-filling Adolphus. The adjudicator made the point that there are no unimportant parts in the play; everyone must believe in his/her own stage person. This was certainly true of Rob Savage (maid), Max WV (Landlord), Oliver Herbst (Policeman), and Mark Tawil (Doctor).

On the technical side, Blair Scarlett (Sound), Curtiss Boyington (Lights), and Patrice Bansa (Props, and designer of a gazogene), all added zeal and initiative.

This is a co-operative festival with no awards beyond the appreciation of the audience. Over the three days we joined in a number of workshops and saw a dozen plays. Anyone interested in drama should come out for next year's play. Don't be poisoned or petrified, - be passionate!

REVIEW

I found it especially appropriate that the Headmaster should have announced the appointment of a School Chaplain on Prize Day, for it was right around that time that I was hoping for a little divine intervention to help see the 1987-88 REVIEW to a completion by the end of June.

Perhaps I shouldn't have skipped chapel quite so often. It's June 28. My other half has long since abandoned me in favour of some beach in France and our illustrious staff advisor leaves for Maine on Friday.

Whether or not they are abandoning a sinking ship is a decision you have probably made already. But if it is sinking, it's not for lack of effort - there are a number of crewmen who did a tremendous amount of paper-balling and desk-slabbing to keep the REVIEW from going sub-marine over this past year, crewmen to whom I am grateful.

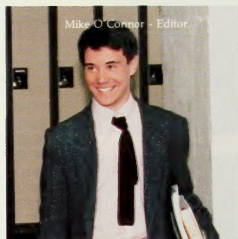

You will notice their dedication in the final product, and in all likelihood, you will also notice that the staff is not perfect. But with any luck, you won't notice a high proportion of the 26<sup>1/2</sup> possible misspellings of Zaigham Zulqernain's name. With any luck, no student will notice that his face didn't appear in the book. And, with any luck, you won't have noticed me being rolled down the driveway on a stretcher by little men in white coats in the third week of July. (If the book's not done by then, I'm having myself committed.)

In any case, I'd bet a large sum of money that you're some student's Mom or Dad, or - if your picture's in this book - you've grown up. I know you'd have to pay this teenager one hell of a lot to read through some guy's yearbook editorial this far. You're probably better off flipping through the book some more, anyway: there's another candid of you or your son - funny haircut and all - that you missed on your first few passes through.

Don't look for a theme in this book. Don't count the number of times Mike, Damian, Rod and I appear. And don't carp about the fact that the book is three months late. It's not worth your time.

Now that we're finished playing Simon Says, let me recount this past year's events from a yearbook editor's point of view. Throughout the first term, the entire Review Staff lived in a dream world. Mike and I had decided that if we never mentioned the word 'yearbook,' nobody would ever notice that there wasn't one. Unfortunately, our plan was discovered just before Christmas, and so we had to compensate for time lost.

Just as we were starting to get a grip on reality, the beginning of second term sprang upon us. Many of our staff still believed that this project was going to be a piece of cake. It was only logical to complicate matters by setting up a computer system, restructuring the dark room, and generally developing a state of chaos.

As June rolled around, the chaos managed to rapidly multiply itself. I therefore decided that it was time to declare mental bankruptcy, and find a place to absorb some foreign culture, so that Mike could have his share of insanity and mine, too. (Sometimes my generosity overwhelms me.)

We were just getting ready to live happily ever after, when we realized that we would have to produce this same book in the coming year. Unfortunately, with the amount of money that had already been spent on our 1987-88 budget, I couldn't look ahead to another summer-long encounter with foreign culture. I guess mental insanity really will be the only answer.

It's always a challenge to produce a record of a year given the constraints of time, money and space in which to work. An even greater challenge is to capture some of the spirit of events and daily activities - a job made easier by the large number of photographers who were everywhere, under the direction of Kevin Worry and Mike Ross. Lorraine Wilkes was instrumental in helping them, and in getting the darkroom going again; next year we will be able to develop and print even more of our own pictures. David Whitehead (a former Review advisor) and Jim Herder (a former Review editor) both know what a monumental undertaking the book can be and supplied us with excellent photographs.

The biggest innovation was the installation during March Break of a desktop publishing system. Much of the book was sent to the printer "camera ready" thanks to the efforts of Mike O'Connor.

Keeping track of sports teams is an overwhelming job - thanks to Jim Mirkopoulos for helping track them down. Thanks to associate editors Sean Wynn and Scott Kelly (grads) and Sean Fleming (advertising) for meeting their deadlines - most of the time. Damian and Curtis stepped in in June to help with production. The biggest challenge now is to keep my office from looking like GRS's, but then, out of chaos comes order. (Mrs. Carson had read about the Second Law of Thermodynamics, but was having nothing of it. -Ed.)

SERVICE COMMITTEE

Sometimes, going through the courses at St. Andrew's, it is hard to visualize what benefits we are getting from, say, math formulae, or physics definitions that will help us or help others in the "real world". Well, there is one teacher at St. Andrew's who teaches his courses with a magnitude of reality and even lets his pupils experience it. From the young to the old, from the mentally handicapped to the physically handicapped, Mr. Robert Jones is involved, and lets his students get involved in social services which aid people who have special handicaps or difficulties. He feels that these opportunities to help other people are just as, or even more important than, any other course of study you can have at St. Andrew's. And he is right! Mr. Jones is involved in Special Services, and he and his students have done remarkable work. Starting with Expansion Week in the first term, Mr. Jones and a handful of students went to work at the Scott Mission and Meals on Wheels, which entails serving and giving out food for the homeless and hungry; working at the Yellow Brick House (home/shelter for battered women) and old age homes, both of which are yearly projects. This includes leaf raking, installation of storm windows, indoor painting for the elderly, and food collection for the Yellow Brick. Gardening, snow clearing, and visitations to senior citizens homes were in co-ordination with the Cadet Programme. Other yearly projects include working with mentally and physically handicapped children. No one can count the times he and some students have taken these special children to the zoo. It may not mean a lot to the average person who does this, but it means a lot to those children and to the students who participate. How about the countless times Mr. Jones has worked with Jann Lynn or the Keswick Public School children and taken them down to the zoo or circus? The students who go on these trips with Mr. Jones have stated that they have gotten more out of them than most of them that they take. As for dedication? On Christmas Day, Mr. Jones took the time with a few students and transported senior citizens to their own homes for the day. Although Mr. Jones admits that he's no angel, I'm sure that there are a lot of thankful people who say he comes pretty close. Mr. Jones, himself, would like to express a special thanks to all the students who contributed their time and energy on these projects, and he concludes that his plan for next year is to expand the school's projects so that we become more involved in the community in which we live.

DAVID SAVAGE

Shock quickly spread throughout the St. Andrew's community upon hearing news of the death of David Savage in early July. Although most of us only knew David for a very short time, he was able to impress upon us his enthusiasm for life, and his respect for others.

As all boarders at this school know, it is often very difficult to leave home at a young age. While David had his share of homesickness, he also realized that he had made a commitment to his parents and himself to give his best at St. Andrew's.

He improved his academic standing, became involved with the junior football and hockey teams, and generally exhibited a mature and determined attitude in his lifestyle.

During his first year at S.A.C., David had already set several goals for himself. He had hoped to be a member of a championship school team and also to attain the position of Prefect. One of our school Prefects, Chris Kelly, gave David his prefect pin in honour of his dream.

We all feel fortunate to have known David Savage, and we recognize him for the fine Androean that he was.

M. Hanson, Esq.

CHOIR

For the first year in many years, the St. Andrew's College Choir has remained an active, performing, and vital organization for the entire year. This speaks volumes about the determination and dedication of its members. The boys who stayed with it through months of rehearsals, months of giving up time, and months of constantly being asked for more, deserve a very large thank you from the entire Andean community.

This group has a long list of accomplishments for one year. The choir sang grace at Homecoming Dinner and at two Ladies Guild Luncheons; "O Canada" at the McPherson Hockey Tournament and Prize Day; carols at the Shops of St. Andrew's and at Resthaven Nursing Home; the traditional Choir Service at St. Paul's Church at Christmas; and anthems in Chapel and at special events such as Remembrance Day and School Closing. The Choir sent twenty members to sing in the massed choirs of the Independent Schools Music Festival, and performed with the Choirs of Holy Trinity School and St. Clement's School in the first Three (School) Choir Festival hosted by St. Andrew's.

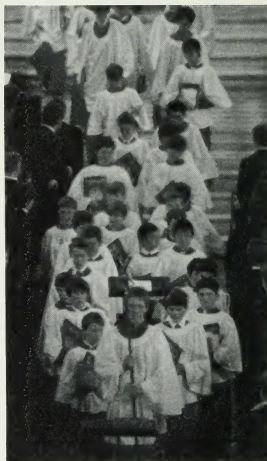

It is hoped that the college will continue to be able to support a four-part choir. Such a body would not only continue to grace the college, but also provide a willing body dedicated to reaching out beyond the gates in service to our neighbouring community.

It is sad that one of our number, Mr. Julian Greenwood, will not be with us to share in the exciting times ahead. He, too, has given freely of his spare time, his excellent musicianship, and his vision to see choral music alive and well at St. Andrew's. Mr. Greenwood provided a lift for wilted spirits and also a generous amount of aid in both establishing and seeking to perpetuate a long lost tradition. With him go our most heart-felt thanks. It has been a wonderful year. We look forward to future successes.

Mr. Stephen Harper, Choir Director, has been the moving force behind the choir. His enthusiasm and hard work have helped the choir's many successes this year.

CHAPEL

For a good many years what has happened around the chapel of St. Andrew's has been synonymous with the presence of Robert W. Meagher. Midway through the summer we learned we were to lose his leadership. Thank you "R-Dub", as I affectionately liked to greet you daily, for all that you did, for your dignity and for your fine sermons. At that time, the Headmaster asked me to co-ordinate chapel activities for this year during which we would search for a permanent chaplain. I didn't know the scope of what I was agreeing to at the time, but I am not sorry that I accepted this unique opportunity. My appreciation of the committee which supported me throughout, to the chapel boys, and to Bruce Somerville and the Headmaster who shared with me in the leading of morning services.

There isn't the time or space here to recount what happened week by week, but some significant trends emerged which are worth noting. First we rediscovered the role of choral music in our services thanks to the rebirth of the choir under the direction of Stephen Harper with assistance from Julian Greenwood. We looked forward keenly to their anthems and to visits from other choirs. We continued to thrill to the organ voluntaries provided by our skilled organists Aubrey Foy and John Clements, and we learned some fine new hymns.

Second, we were fortunate to hear a variety of messages from guest preachers - about fifteen of them, both men and women, both ordained and non-ordained. Included were former students and staff members, a parent, heads of brother or sister schools and their chaplains and two services of religious drama. About eight services were generated from within our school community both by students and staff. Particularly memorable was the service of Remembrance in November with its guided tour of our Memorial Chapel led by David Timms. The highlight of December was our annual Carol Service at St. Paul's Church.

In addition, there were moments of sadness which will live on in my memory. Early in the year I had to share with the school the untimely death of John Aspin, husband of our much loved school nurse, Mrs. Irene Aspin. Later in the year I worked closely with family and friends to plan the memorial service which took place in our chapel for former student Mark Wigston who died at the age of 33. Finally, all of us were drawn together again in April to commemorate a man who loved our chapel deeply, Lloyd C. MacPherson, who passed away in Nova Scotia during the March Break. Each of these services was an occasion of celebration and thanksgiving, which is as it should be.

Morning by morning our school day began with its brief service of dedication in the chapel. By dint of relocating the choir and seating everyone tightly elsewhere, we were able to accommodate the full school body and not have to exclude one house per day. It seemed regrettable to me that our main service of the week on Sunday evening could only be experienced by our boarding population, so in the latter half of the year we experimented with having some of our main services on Saturday morning. It seems that there is much to commend this option, not least because it allows those on leave to have a less rushed dinner at home before returning to school.

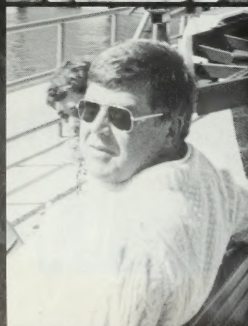

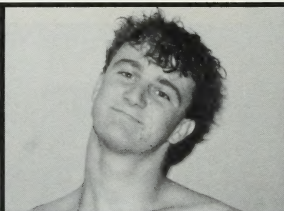

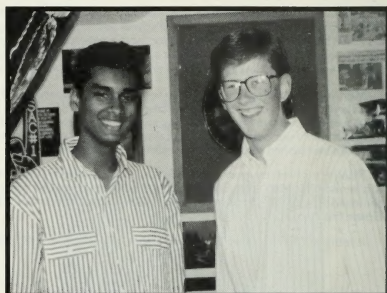

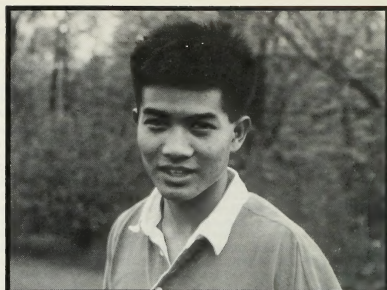

Finally, it gives me great joy to announce that we have appointed our new Chaplain. He is Rev. Robert Arril, presently of Holy Trinity School in Richmond Hill. At the time I invited him to address one of our weekend services in the late fall, I had no idea that this might transpire. He is a splendid choice with many gifts to offer as teacher, preacher and counsellor. The Arrils - Bob, his wife Leslie and their two sons - will be moving into the Campbell House this summer.

It is my hope and prayer that with God's blessing, our chapel will continue to be a meaningful place of worship for Andreans of all religious beliefs.

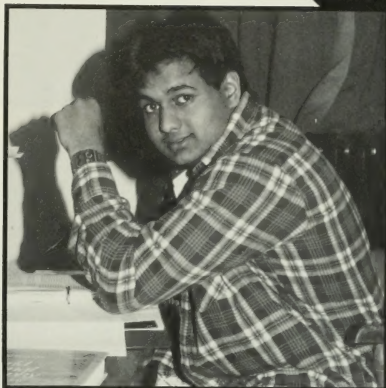

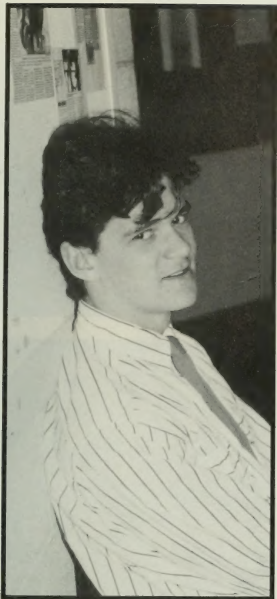

- Rupert J. Ray, Esq.

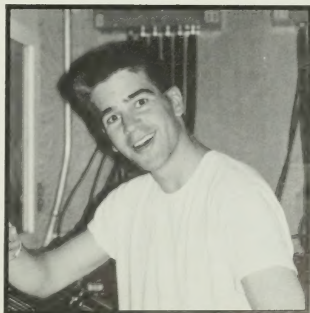

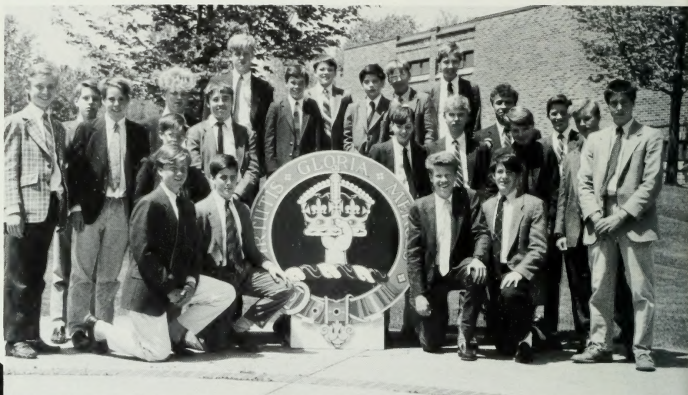

This year marked another fine year in Flavelle House. Every member seemed to have contributed in his own special way to the extent that this was a most enjoyable place to live.

The strength of this house is in the fine people that make it up. There were many different personalities that were all accepted for what they were, and which added greatly to the lives of all in the house. From our "Head of House" this year, Chris Hind, down through a very well organized grade thirteen to the "greenest" of the grade ten year, the house showed that it could "pull together". In the scholarship department Flavelle House stood first this year. There have been many lessons of great value learned within its walls; perhaps the most important one being that of participation. The Track and Field Day was a special triumph for Flavelle.

The renovations that have taken place this year in Flavelle ensure that it will continue to be a desirable place to live. The Ladies Guild has spent many thousands of dollars and much caring in the reappointment of the Flavelle House Library. This room now provides us with a very homey atmosphere. Many thanks to the Ladies Guild! The college continues to put funding behind the total refurbishing of each room, and at the March Break, rebuilt all the second and third floor washroom facilities as well. It is great to have a shower in a warm room with "lots and lots of hot water"!

All in all a great year in Flavelle House.

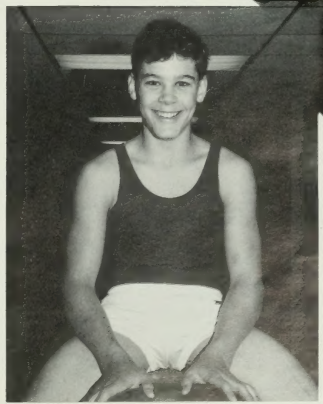

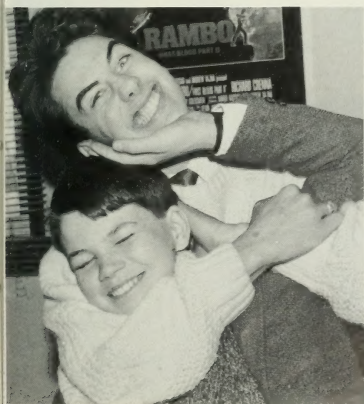

Laidlaw House has gone through many changes this year, one being the appointment of our new Housemaster, Mr. David Whitehead, who has worked very hard to keep the members of Laidlaw House organized and generally on time. Another change is our move upstairs from our old common room, to our new location on the second floor of Dunlap Hall.

This year our Housecaptains (Kevin Worry, Rod Boothby, Damian Brooks, Dirk Radeke, Curtiss Boyington and Bill McClocklin) and Mr. Whitehead planned several extracurricular activities, such as a Blue Jays game, bar-b-ques, Westfest, and after school sports competitions with Mac House, which included baseball, floor hockey, soccer and basketball. Everyone enjoyed themselves and Laidlaw certainly did well.

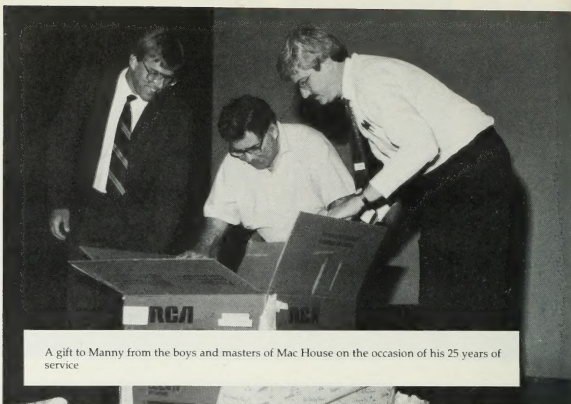

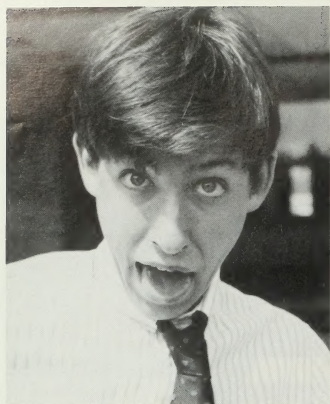

On behalf of the members of Laidlaw House, I would like to thank Mr. Whitehead and the Housecaptains for giving us the chance to participate in these activities. This year, again members of Laidlaw contributed well on the sports field and in the classroom.

MACDONALD

It was a challenging year for Mr. Hanson and Mr. Galadja as they both took on new positions as Housemasters, but one made easier by the high degree of spirit and co-operation exhibited by the "Boys of Mac House".

Besides doing duties, the boys experienced many fun evenings such as movie nights, pizza parties, house plays, talent nights, a trip to Cinesphere, baseball, soccer, floor hockey as well as in-house, clan and other competitions.

Two awards given on Prize Day were the Edith Grant Trophy to Torin Buzek, the "new boy in MacDonald House who showed the greatest improvement towards becoming the ideal Andrean"; and the King Memorial Trophy to Gene Cheung as the "boy living in MacDonald House who excelled in studies, games, deportment and character".

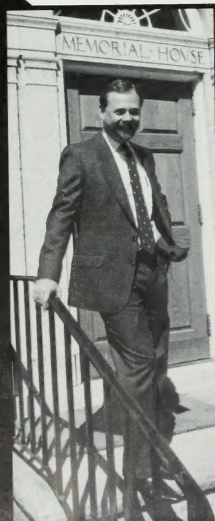

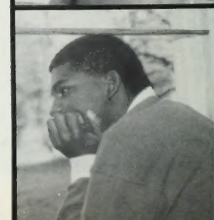

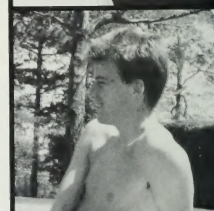

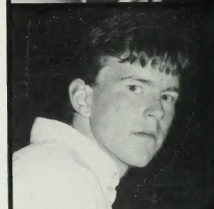

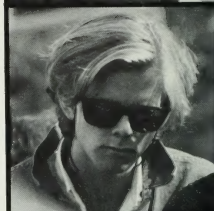

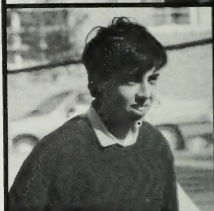

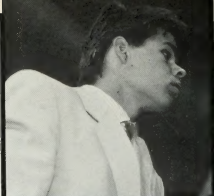

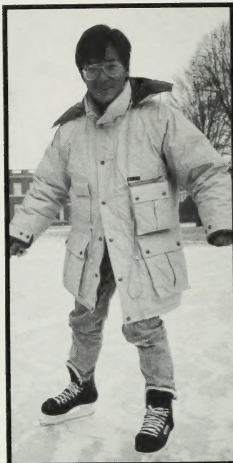

The House was well served by its 27 House Captains; each provided high levels of spirit, enthusiasm, energy, motivation and help. Thanks to the Duty Masters for their support, hard work and dedication throughout the year.

It's appropriate that this time a Housemaster should have the last word. It's July. The summer's here. School's out. I should be away from the place and yet... the Housemaster waits the familiar rounds reflecting that there was home for 68 young men from different background and cultures, who had made a commitment to each other to get along - survive - experience - share - to grow and develop and change and do it all in a space and time and way that was uniquely Memorial House. Did it all happen in just ten months? ...

Down at the far end of the Middle floor where most of the 10's had to be chased into study, silence deafens. Now, believe it or not, I miss the ever constant hum of the House in motion. The colour and dynamics of Memorial's many denizens. The lovable scoundrel; the exasperating rogue; the guys I constantly had to wake up in the mornings; the night owls I had to put to bed. The raucous, exhilarating yell of "Okannay!" as the House burst from the confinement of study and roared down the halls in search of excitement to settle perhaps for the next episode of Miami Vice. Now that the dust has settled back again, I miss it all.

Accomplishments? They were there. We had our share of athletes and contributors to all facets of school life from 1st Hockey to House dramas to superb housecaptains and clan colour winners. Those are the most obvious. But I was proud of our other moments. The quiet struggles of those persevering to shoulder academic challenges, the development of friendships, the sharing of personal time to help on another, the inner struggle as the tug of conscience battled the desire to go over the line of school rules, the individual growth and development of character and the collective pride as the House pulled together to carve out its own characteristic identity. Those Monday morning House meetings!

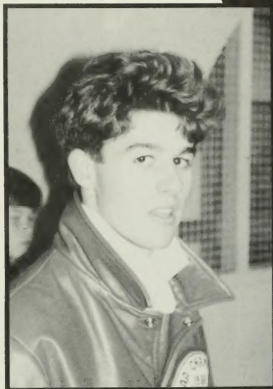

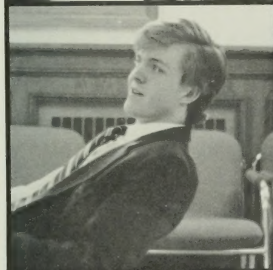

There are many of you to thank for a good year - you were a good bunch. I enjoyed the year and take pride that I have been associated with a fine group of young men. Thanks for the memories Memorial.

NEW

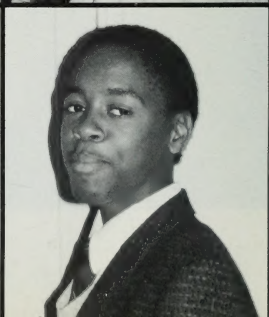

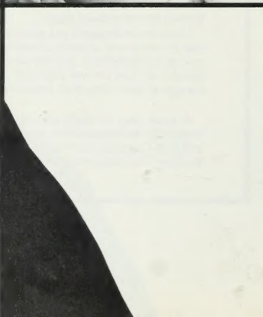

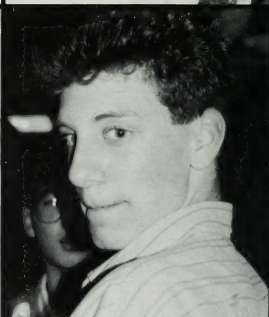

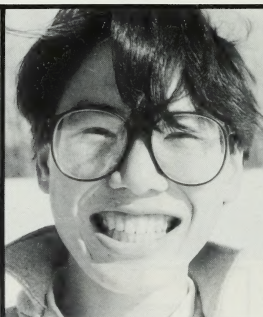

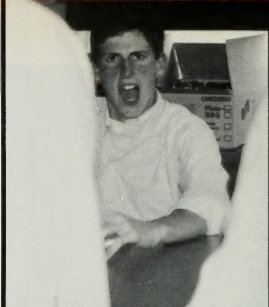

Fourscore less 79 years ago our fathers brought forth on this campus, a New House, conceived in the Dunlap Hall Basement, and dedicated to the proposition that all houses are not created equal.

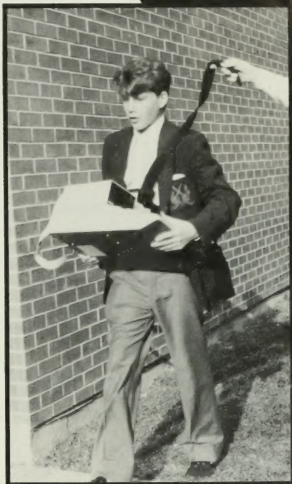

Now we are engaged in a great civil war for the Housser Trophy, testing whether that House or any house so conceived and so non-dedicated can long endure. We are met on the battlefield, and we came third. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this, for we have not the pretence to defeat the other houses in our inaugural year. Next year, however...

A great deal of credit should go to the rookie-of-the-year performance of Mr. Somerville as Housemaster, and to the New House prefects, Nick 'The Greek' Tsioros and John Comfort, all of whom conspired to keep the House spirits high, mainly with Bowling Tournaments and Blue Jay's games.

RAMSEY

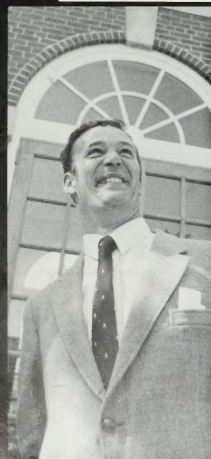

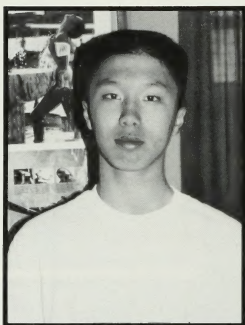

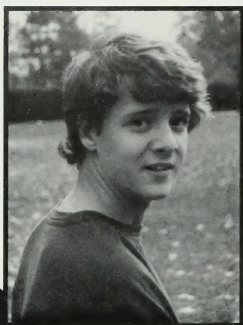

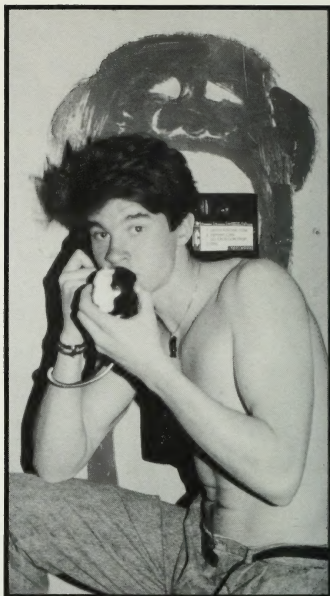

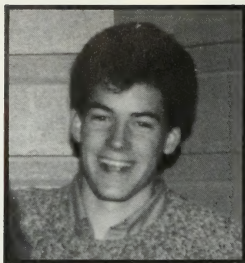

Ramsey House experienced another great year under the leadership of Mr. Alan Jackson, and Ramsey's crack prefecting duo, Adam Neal and Pete Van Nostrand. The house's dedication was evident in Ramsey's second place finish in overall clan standings. The house was well represented in all areas of sport, most notably in First Football, First Hockey and Track and Field. Pete Van Nostrand won the school's Cross-Country Run in the fall.

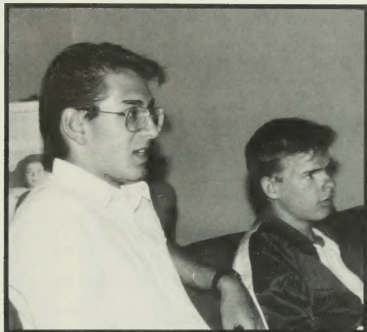

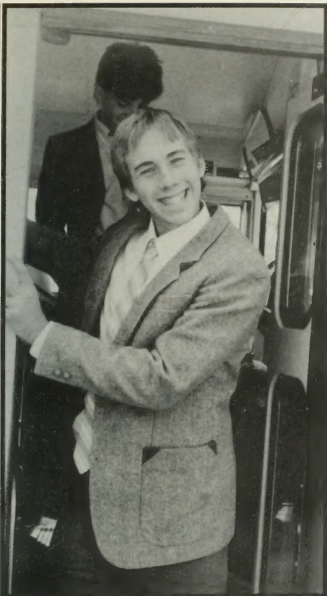

The House was very involved in drama, both on stage and behind the scenes in "The Importance of Being Earnest", the Musical, the House play, and the Drama Festival. In fact, it was very active in all aspects of SAC life this year, including Mayfest, the Winter Carnival, Cadets and academics.

The members of the house would like to wish Mr. Jackson the best of luck in his endeavors at Country Day School.

SIFTON

Over Sifton House's 87-88 year, Mr. Robinson has proven a predilection for things Housemasterial, having guided the house through another profitable and successful year. We excelled in/on the fields of academics, sports, cadets, the cross-country run, and drama, in which we beat out the competition to win the trophy for "Best House Play" for the second time. We also had a lot of fun during the year with such events as Blue Jay games, laser shows, barbecues, and sleep-in breakfasts. The graduates of Sifton House have left their mark not only in the House's success, but in the overall success of the school. It has been a great and memorable year. Good luck to all the up and coming Siftonites - may you all continue to prosper and excel in all that you do.

ENRICHMENT PROGRAMME

Mr. Alan Halstead arranged for several performing groups to visit the school during the year under the Enrichment Programme.

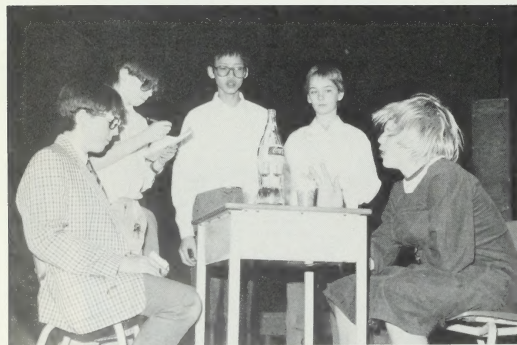

These included the National Tap Dance Company, the Ontario Ballet, the Young People's Theatre, the Epic String Quartet, and the Brass Ensemble from the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra.

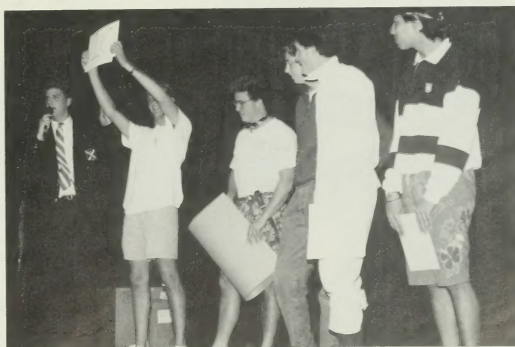

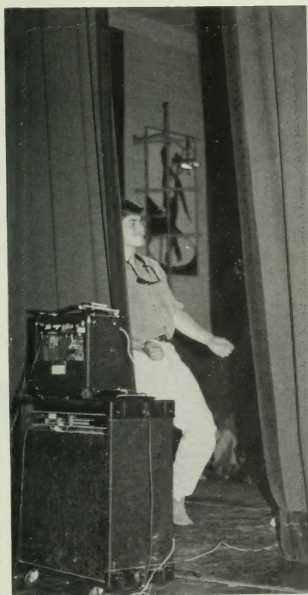

LOWER SCHOOL NIGHT

TALENT NIGHT

CLUBS

After classes Thursdays, during the Winter Term, students participated in club activities from the Aquarium Club to the Ultimate Alphabet. Ongoing projects such as the Choir and Review ran during this time. "Grease" was being staged and that kept cast and crew busy. Creative endeavours included stained glass, movie making and cooking. There were lots of games including backgammon, chess and bridge. Mystery lovers watched movies and discussed detective heroes. Physical types could play badminton, scuba, or keep fit.

MEMORIES

Memories come crashing down like tiles from old ceilings falling all around causing mournful feelings memories of what was
and what might have been memories of things that we had shared memories of things that we had seen memories of us together
through the good times and the bad memories that make me smile memories that make me sad.

- K. Cameron (S.A.C. 1984-88)

"Andy the Polar Bear" (probably not the artist's title) was presented by the Graduating Class to the school as a parting gesture. It's marble, really heavy, and done by Derek Green.

FLAVELLE HOUSE

Thomas William Capling (1984-88)

Nicknames: Cap, Casper, SHE-RA, Spock

Activities: Prefect; House Captain; Cdt. Capt.; First Volleyball (4 a), MVP, Captain; First Basketball (4 a), Captain; First Rugby (2 a); Review photographer (2 a) - none of which counts for getting into university!

Sayings: "You're TERMINATED!" "Wallace, GET OUT!" "Mike, can I get a ride to Burlington?" "Dun, Dun, Dnnnnnnnn!" "And as for your ugly ass..." "I'm going to work out."

I would like to say thanks to Juice, Mr. Foy, and Mr. Smith for fighting to let me come back for my last year here. To Chris, Andrew and Mike: I would never have done it without you guys; you were always there when I needed cheering up. Most of all, to my parents who sacrificed so much to allow me to come here. Even though I never really showed how grateful I was, I will never be able to thank you enough. I love you both.

Next Year? Wilfred Laurier or sold into slavery.

Harold H. L. Chung (1986-88)

Sayings: "Give me a break!" "Get in your rooms!"

Activities: Second Soccer; Second Football; Second Basketball, MVP; First Chapel-Skipping (MVP-K.Wong)

I have experienced S.A.C. for two years. In these two years, I have learned much, both academically, and socially. I am now confident, and well prepared for the challenges of the future. These years have been the best of my life. I remember the time Ken and I made the words "FLAVELLE HOUSE" in the snow (too bad the picture didn't turn out); the time I scored that beautiful goal in the soccer game against Ridley... I'd like to thank my parents for all I received at S.A.C., as well as for all the support and love. Thanks also to: Mr Foy; for being my Housemaster and opening the music room for me to study during exam week; Mr. Treasure and Mr. Timms, for improving my English; Ken Wong, for teaching me tennis; all my roommates: Zeleke, Mark, Paul, P.J., Andy, and all the Chinese guys. Special thanks to my parents for the support and love. Good luck to my brothers, other grads, and everyone at S.A.C.

Next Year? Electrical Engineering at Queen's, Toronto, or Waterloo.

Nigel James Dunlap (1981-84, 1985-88)

Sayings: "The day I die..."

It's been quite an experience. Thanks especially to Mom and Dad, and also to Joy-Anne and Adam, and CA, PM, MP, IG, JC. Hey guys, welcome to the real world: step outside your shell and take a walk on the wild side.

Next Year? Bishop's

Mark David Ellinger (1984-88)

Nicknames: ME, Mebert, Mel.

Sayings: "I am ME, I am a walrus." "Nuke the gay whales for Jesus!" "C'mon, let's set someone's dog on fire!" "Your dog is dead, Tom." "You were right, Paul, the elephant does do 160."

Activities: Second Tennis; Second Basketball; Second Soccer; First Skyweaving; Stiffy Fan Club; House Captain; Unicycle Basketball; Hangdrop Champion; D.R.C. Inc. Co-Founder; National Plaid Day Co-Founder; Concert Groupie; Krishna Consciousness.

Four years of S.A.C. have left me with a new outlook on life, although I haven't decided what it is yet. It was a terrific experience, with more good times than bad. Pink Floyd and Sn with Paul and the pusher. Good luck to Tom, Dave, Adam and the rest of the gang. Curt, watch out for Billy. My thanks go out to my parents for seeing me through to the end, to the Bradfields for a warm bed and a family in T.O., and the dead people on my wall for providing inspiration. But life goes on, because Buckwheat would have wanted it that way!

Next Year? Western, U.B.C, Ski Bummin', or jammin' with the Dali Lama somewhere in Tibet.

Ian Robert Giles (1985-88)

Nicknames: Gil, Giller

Sayings: "This is my Christmas present, a sweater?" "This is the girl of my dreams." "Mouse has his morals." "There's a raccoon frozen on my engine." "OK Howie Long." "James, get the Holy water."

Well, the three years spent at S.A.C. seemed a lifetime of great experiences. I've met friends I will remember for the rest of my life. Thanks to CH, AR, AA, JB, ND and AP for bringing the best out of school life. S.A.C. taught me two invaluable lessons: a) you can achieve anything if you set your mind on it and b) friends are the most important thing you can have. Living in Flavell House has made me more tolerant and understanding of other individuals. Thank you very much Mom and Dad for giving me the opportunity to attend the school which brought so much to my life. To my father, the man who always believed in me and stood behind me no matter what the outcome, I dedicate this message: "To those who fight for it, life has a flavour the protected never know." Finally, I'd like to thank JR, my best friend, for always being there and supporting me in all I chose to achieve; I'll always remember the meaning you brought to my life. Thank you everyone.

Next Year? Bishop's or McGill.

Christopher Phillip Gore (1984-88)

Sayings: "Bloodfire!" "Mark, what we doing this weekend?" "B, wait for me nuh." "Coke's smokes!" "Hey, Rogee" "Gulla monster"

Activities: Under Sixteen Soccer (2 a); Second Soccer (2 a); Under Sixteen Basketball; Under Sixteen Tennis, Second Tennis, First Tennis; Second Squash; First Cat Hunting; Warm Water Boy.

It seems like just yesterday I was entering the gates of St. Andrew's as a grade nine student. It's over. I am finally leaving and just looking back on it all. Life here has definitely been an experience I will never forget. St. Andrew's is a school which is of the highest quality both in and out of the classroom. I feel lucky to have been afforded the opportunity to attend such an outstanding school. Many important lessons are taught here but perhaps the most important aspect of this school is friendship, for without it living here would have been intolerable. Thanks NB, PG, RC, CC, ND, JB and the rest of the West Indian community. A very special thanks to Mom, Dad, Mark Lopez and Mr. Foy. I entered St. Andrew's as an intimidated and irresponsible boy; I leave as a confident man ready to forge on in life.

Christopher Charles Hind (1982-88)

Nicknames: Wease, Grabs, Buba, Heineken, Rough Dog, Hellcat, Rapmaster.

Activities: Head of Flavell House; Prefect; House Captain; various school teams; Service Committee; Mayfest Committee; Musical; House play; Cdt. Maj.

Sayings: "No, you gotta hear this - it's the BEST, EASY!" "EASY!" "Kickback Pooched it." "We can fix it; my Dad has an awesome set of tools." "Pass the Hooch, Party call woowooo!" "JMI lives."

Feelings are mixed as I leave the gates of St. Andrew's, glad to be free yet sad to leave so many familiar faces behind. I have become indifferent to the pros and cons of the school; exploiting the pros and attempting to improve the cons. I have reached my goals and leave as a confident Andrean. I have gained so much and for this I must thank my friends, Mr. Smith, Waldo, Robo, Mr. Stuart, Mr. Foy, and most especially, my family, whom I love. I live for Rob's truck, comfortably numb at Floyd, Gordio's Superball, I. D. Club, Shipwreck, Shotgun club, all those parties, Midnight copy club, Chapel pipes, Chem class, Hiltzorian physics, Islanders, Blue Kittens, rolling Elmo, surviving S.T., Alternate and collapsible stages.

Next Year? McGill

Kenneth K. Lui (1986-88)

Activities: Junior Squash; Second Volleyball

Above all, thanks to my Mother and my Father, for making my stay at St. Andrew's possible. I'd also like to thank Mr. Smith, Mr. Timms, Mr. Inglis, Mr. Hiltz and Mr. Foy for their help and guidance. Finally, I'd like to express my gratitude to AS, DH, KW, DM, EW, for making my life at St. Andrew's meaningful.

"Life is not as lucid as a sane man sees it to be..."

Take care...

Next Year? University of California, Berkeley; Purdue or U. of T.

Cameron David Martin (1985-88)

Nicknames: Star, Punk Red, Teddy Nevit

Sayings: "Hey star!" "How about those Oilers?" "Mr. Smith, may I write my retest now?" "Oh, hi." "What can you do?" "Come on. Let's play hockey out back." "Lovely." "University's for wimps, anyway."

My three years' stay at prison camp was interesting to say the least. I met many new, exciting people and made lots and lots and lots of friends. I bet I made more friends than anyone. There were many school functions such as Ski Day, Homecoming and the Cheer Rallies, especially this year's! It was unforgettable! It wasn't all fun and games, though. There were the action packed hours of Cadets in which we were forced to participate, and of course... Chapel!!! I would like to use my remaining words to thank (you guessed it) Mommy and Daddy for supporting me morally and monetarily throughout my stay. Thanks to Roger and Cocome, and Chris for helping me keep my sanity and thanks to Wombai Wilson for making sure that I didn't become too sane.

Next Year? Western (Science)

Christopher D. Matukas (1983-88)

Nicknames: Chris, Toker, Tuk, Tuky, Lithy.

Activities: Under Sixteen Football (2 a), MIP; Tennis (2 a); Second Volleyball, MIP; House Captain; Musical (Kiss me Kate)

Sayings: "HE-MAN!" "Oh, my God!" "Honchay conchay" "Elephants" "Seals in shower stalls" "DUCK CALLINGS" "Tomas I SAID!!!!" "Andy, what's that smell?!" "Andy, you OK in there?" "Wallace, get the $%*# OUT!" "ANNNNDDDDYYYYY, ANDY BBBBAABBBYYY!"

Life at S.A.C. was an experience I will never forget - not just academically, but simply surviving with four hundred other guys. That in itself is a task! I would just like to say, it was a struggle all the way through, but I made it with friends that were there when I was pushed off course. Thanks Tom and Andrew: you really made the stay so much more interesting. Thanks to the rest of you; you know who you are.

To my brother, Peter when you get here, take advantage of every opportunity that comes your way. Thanks to my parents for the St. Andrew's experience and their support. Mr. Whitehead and Mr. Foy, thanks a whole lot.

"Restore my broken dreams; shattered like a falling glass.
I'm not ready to be broken yet, a lesson learned is so hard to forget." - Sting

Next Year? Wilfred Laurier, Calgary, or skiing!!!!

Paul M. Morgan (1982-88)

Nicknames: Morgs, Morjunebug, More, Morgski.

Activities: Second Soccer; Second Hockey; Kayaking; First Skyweaving; D.R.C. Inc. Co-Founder; National Plaid Day participant; concert groupie; unicyclist in training.

Sayings: "Tom, that coat must go!" "Tom, you owe me money!" "MOOOOO!" "Mr. Foy, can I borrow your car?"

When six long years of struggle and pain are summed up in a small sheet of paper, presented to you on Prize Day, you wonder if the whole thing was really worth it. Looking back, I can see the faces of friends. I can hear lost cries of joy, sorrow and pain, and I can feel the thrill of victories earned in the classroom, and on the pitch. But most of all, I can see I've grown. Yes. It was worth it. I must thank my parents for their support, as well as Mr. Foy, Mr. Somerville, and Ward for all their help. Thanks Pat for your patience. Here's to Mark and the Mute, Peter, Roger, Dave, Jimi and Eric, who helped me through many a dull day. All the best to Bill and Curt, who have one long year ahead; and to all the cows who stand so innocently in pastures green.

Next Year? Floating through the Cosmos in search of my inner self or Western.

Andrew H. Palazzi (1986-88)

Activities: House Captain; First Volleyball (2 a), ISAA Champs; First Basketball (2 a); Second Tennis; House Debating; Studying; Dancing; Partying.

Sayings: "Tom, are you OKAY in there?" "Chris, look out! Here come the ducks!!!!" "And as for your ugly ass..." "Chris, I feel like a slurp. (We could bring one back for Mr. Foy.)" "No Wallace, the two words I had in mind weren't HAPPY BIRTHDAY!" "Juice, it doesn't matter if the team loses today, we'll always have our health." "Yes, I did leave my pride on the court!!!!" "DUN DUN DUNNNNNNNNNN."

I hope the concept of learning I have acquired at S.A.C. will never cease to be a part of my life. Thanks to the teachers and masters who brought learning, skill and experience to my school life. I am grateful both for the feeling of defeat in an I.S.S.A. Championship and the feeling of victory; it is only justice to experience both sides of the spectrum. None of this however, could have been possible without the coaches - thanks! Thanks to Thomas and Christopher who made all the hard work a little bit easier. Thanks as well to the whole Grade 13 class and especially Flavell House.

"That man is best who sees the truth himself;
Good too is he who harkens to wise counsel.
But who is neither wise himself nor willing
To ponder wisdom, is not worth a straw."

- Aristotle.

Blair William Scarlett (1984-88)

Nicknames: Scarli, Zeke, Boo, Dad, Bwere, Chester.

Sayings: "What's your point?" "What are you getting at?" "Who's going to the Grid?" "Andy, WAKE UP!" "She's older than that." "It's for love, not money."

Activities: First Kayaking; Second Kayaking, MIP; First Rifles (2 a); Second Rifles MVP; Cadet M.W.O.; School Musical (3 a), Producer of two Flavell House Plays; 3:05 Grid Club; FFF Club.

My four years here have taught me how to succeed, how to cope, plus numerous other lessons, like trying to beat the system and (inevitably) getting caught. If it wasn't for the patience and perseverance of people like my parents, Mr. Foy, and Andrew S., I don't think I could have made it. I am eternally grateful to my parents for the opportunity. The most valuable lesson I have learned is that it is life's little problems that prepare us for the larger ones. I would like to thank AS, CM, AP, TC, CH, JL, CM, GH, and especially Mr. Aubrey Foy, my mother and father for all the unconditional love and support. I wish the best to the friends that I have left behind. May this school give you everything it has to offer, but be sure to act in kind.

"Time may change me, but I can't change Time" - David Bowie

Next Year? Wilfred Laurier (Business)

Andrew Paul Steffen (1984-88)

Through the window on the wall,
Comes shining through like rain-lit drops,
The airiness of life and freedom;
Sending out it's one bright meaning
For every one and everything
To feel and touch in admiration.
And no one said it would be easy,
No one said it would be hard.
And no one's there to point the way
Through gloom of night and flight of day.
A good walker leaves no tracks
A good door needs no lock.
Learn the lesson before it's taught.
Life is but a simple hand.
For all to live and all to see
The window on the wall that beckons me.

Special thanks to my Mother and Father and Mr. Foy, and especially to the Hand that took and gave all it could. Additional thanks to BS, KL, PB, JL, CM, JM, JC, etc. ETC...

William Wallace Watson (1982-88)

Activities: Under Fourteen Cricket, Under Fifteen Cricket; Under Sixteen Squash, Second Squash (2 a); House Captain; S.A.C. in France; Oli-Wally Divers Int'l; Cdt. Sgt.; Head of Chapel.

In grade eight, it felt as if it would be eons before I would graduate; and now I'm finally "there". However, I am not as excited as I thought I would be, rather filled with wonder. The thought of being in a different place next year with different people is almost inconceivable yet inevitable. The friendships formed in the past six years with both masters and schoolmates will last forever and the memories, a lifetime. We are trapped in the ever continuing cycle of rising from the bottom to the top and rising yet again to the bottom! I would like to thank Mr. Harrison for disciplining me in Mac House, Mr. Foy for continuing the lesson in Flavell, and Mr. Hanson for being my tutor over the years (best of luck with your new family.) Mom and Dad, I realize the sacrifices you made to send me here (although I will appreciate them much more later in life!) and I thank you for that and the support you gave me - I love you both very much.

Next Year? Stepping up to the bottom at McGill or Laurier for Biz.

Kenneth T. L. Wong (1986-88)

Nicknames: Fat Chicken, Calculus Machine, Terminator.

Activities: Second Tennis; Second Volleyball; First Fencing; Sleeping

The lessons I have learned in these two years of boarding school, both in academics and human nature, really helped me in solving the problems that I met in that critical period of my life. I will never forget all the wonderful times playing basketball and cards with my friends, nor will I forget the quietness of the country life up here. Unforgettables include Patou, Peter, Andy and Chris; I wish you all good luck in college and take care. Dave, Eric, Nelson and all my Chinese friends, work hard in the coming years. Harold, don't stay up so late, and Ken, forget me not. Thank you to Mom and Dad for your love and support. To Mr. Foy for your care. To Mr. Smith for guidance in college applications. To Mr. Myrans for much valuable information in economics and history.

Next Year? Queen's or U. of T.

Guername Patou Zeleke (1986-88)

Nicknames: Zekie, Blackman, Ja-mame, Zucchini, Gelatin, "Thief" (on the basketball court), Zekes, and the five different pronunciations of Zeleke.

Activities: First Soccer; Second Basketball; Track & Field; Rugby; Cricket; Reggae appreciation; House Captain; Chess Club.

Sayings: "Mark Courtney Prescott!! Ha Ha Ha!!" "Rest Yourself!!" "Whad it say'n nah Mark?" "I ain't able dred."

Two years ago when I first drove through the school gates, I was just another warm water boy. I didn't know what to expect. Looking back now at my friends and my achievements in all aspects of school life, I come to the conclusion that these last two years of my life have not been wasted but have been the greatest learning experience of my life. I would like to thank Mom and Dad for their support and for making St. Andrew's possible. Thanks also to the Fairaudeaus, for all their help, Maj, Dan Marino (Army), Sam, Niggs, and all the West Indians. Thanks Jon, for typing this for me. Later Dreds!!!

Next Year? Going with my room-mate Paul through the cosmos (see Paul Morgan) or Western.

MEMORIAL HOUSE

James Michael S. Bratton (1984-88)

Nicknames: Archie, Albert, Bratt.

Activities: Jr., Sr. Cross-country; Cdt. W.O. & C.S.M.; House Capt.; V.P. Debating Society; co-founder, A.B. Night of 1000 Moons; Reggi's bomb squad; M.E. room clearing crew; 3rd man Km. 113, Sifton.

Sayings: "You're such a bastard!!" "Yo, Tina, etc." "Won Loy's for dinner Giles?" "Phil, get the list!" "Hey Jason, fire Gremlins!" "Mouse, isn't it time to give Kate another rose?" "AP, TC, CM - Hi Wallace, later guys?" "What's on Gord, Doors or Hendrix?" "So, how's your past week been?" "Nuts!!" "Just the stomach flu, sir." "Lan, isn't that supposed to be 30 ins?" "Look Toots." "Drive faster a!" "Adi, is it getting cold in here?" "I shall see you anon." "It's just a bag."

S.A.C. has been very good to me. Grades 10 and 11 were hell, but made 12 and 13 all that much better. Most of that history is wrapped up in the sayings and activities above. All that is left is the most important: thanking those who gave me this school. Mom and Dad who actually made it possible and who put up with my shogun approach with patience and love. Finally, I'd like to thank the whole Av-Ruskin family, especially Adi, who gave me a home away from home, which was more than just a place to wash my hands. For my friends - Adi, Giles, Mouse, Mark and Phil, SK and GK - Carpe Diem - Gather ye rosebuds where ye may.

Next Year? Huron, Western or the dusty haze of a pickled afternoon.

Michael Carl Brewer (1985-88)

Nicknames: Brew, Brewster, Brewski, Brewmeister, Brewa, The Brewdoctor, The Gear-Boggler, Franz.

Activities: Second Football, Champs; First Football (2), ISAA Champs, Capt.; First Hockey (3), OFSAA Champs, MVP, Capt. (2); First Rugby (3), Scotland Tour '86; Exams in Keswick Club; Goggles Club; Registered and practicing doctor; Resident Manager of Bob's Roof-top Emporium; "Buck tooth wing 'a' bird Hunting Club"; Midnight Mac Crew; 151 participant; Weightlifting Crew Foreign Correspondent.

Sayings: "Don't be gay!" "Hey Hlaxoc, get some food - no trifle!" That's not time management, that's Duplaim! "Eeat it you #6!!!!" "Hey Bowl, how about chapel?" "We can't make you do it, we're only here to pump you up!" "No Dup, don't it." "Duff, know your parameters." "Comf, it's a shiew!" "You shut up!" "Leav-me-lone!" "Bas-u-bal!" "Ahh Lou!" "Watch it - this is a big last minute team!" "It's a tripple!" "Eh Tony Montana!" "Applications today Town, nah tomorrow."

Firstly, I'd like to thank all the great guys responsible for some interesting and often crazy experiences at and away from school. The opportunities and friendships offered by St. Andrew's are the special qualities which I enjoyed most. Special thanks to GS, Coach, ABJ, ST, SS, each of whom played important roles during my years at S.A.C. Bowl, I'll see you at Maudlin and good luck at Penn, Duff. Lastly to my parents, many thanks for the encouragement and understanding which meant so much. Relax, kickback and let the sand fall.

Next Year? Somewhere in the States. (If applications ever get sent.)

Kenneth Allister Cameron (1984-1988)

Four long hard years of trudging through the sleet and snow of life at St. Andrew's is at an end. At time, I thought I would never make it here, and other times I knew I never would. I would like to thank all of my friends who helped me find my way through the maze; you know who you are. Special thanks Mom and Dad for the sacrifices you made on my behalf, even though sometimes I did not seem to appreciate them. Now, as I prepare to move on to larger venues, I find both delight and a little sadness in nostalgia.

Changes from past to present: "I wanna be a..." "Paul, make me a punk shirt." "Getting mugged by a punk in the Eaton's Centre. "What an elevator ride!" "Evenings spent watching incense burn." "So, what's your point?" "Maintain is the key." "1120 trips to Mac's. Lunch at Arby's. "I didn't do that... did I?" "Weekends at James' house. Trapped in the Eaton's Centre parking lot. Fishing (or fat chicks in Ohio. "Haven't been here for two hours... have I?" "No officer, I don't live here. I'm from Canada." "Lean closer, I've got something to tell you." Rob's truck. "No Rob, my nose isn't broken." "You mean those big red buckets?" "Hi, I'm Ken. What's your name? Really? Did your parents hate you or something? Don't worry, I had hippie parents too; I came this close to being called Moonbeam Zappa." "Chairman of the 4 o'clock club. "Baby, baby, baby." "President of five coffee club. "Led, I'm not going to Cadex today." "Hey, do you want to dance?" "No! No! You misunderstood me. I said you look fat in those pants." "Nathan!" Yeah, it's been real.

Next Year? Who cares? Life is great everywhere.

Albert Wai Wah Chan (1987-88)

Nicknames: Alberto, Eubie, Alba.

Activities: Soccer, Squash, MIP; asking for more marks in the tests and examinations.

S.A.C. is a challenging place. With its spacious campus, well equipped gymnasiums and classrooms, together with the highly qualified teachers, the students grow and learn in a healthy and friendly atmosphere. Although I only spent one year in this college, this place, together with the people, changed my personality. It gave me lots of opportunities to do things other than studies and I feel proud of S.A.C. which excels in all kinds of sports. Memorial House differs from the other houses in some ways and also, it is something more. Doing well in academics is not an easy job, and doing the house duty at night is even harder; but to my loving chums at Memorial - Bratton, Cameron, Dyack, Fox, Politeski, Pollock, Townsend, and to Harold and the two Kins in Flavelle - thank you for your support throughout the year. I also thank Mr. Treasure, our Dad, who arranged for me such a huge room and a nice roommate, Jeff Fox, to live with during the year. Finally, I must give sincere thanks to Mr. Smith who is the man behind Grade 13, and a most helpful teacher, especially with applications to university. I will also remember those teachers who said to me, "There should be somewhere else for you to go, Albert!" Nevertheless, this year has been a memorable time of my life.

Next Year? Go for my target at U. of T. or Queen's.

James Drummond (1987-88)

Nicknames: NUTS, KNUTZ, Drum, Drummie, Drummer, ...etc.

Sayings: "Of course this is my natural hair colour...", "Einstein doesn't have a thing on me!", "Alriiight!", "I'm just SUCH a smoothie!", "It is actually very sunny in Scotland..."

Contrary to popular opinion, the largest proportion of my time at St. Andrew's HAS been spent in a state of consciousness (!), and although I haven't been here for very long, I have had experiences and made friends that I'll never forget. My impression on St. Andrew's may not be great, but my impression on me will be a lasting one and I will always be grateful for the opportunities that I've had here. To the teachers who taught me and to Mr. Smith for being there (even if I wasn't always exactly sure where that was!) - my thanks and respect. To all of you guys (you know who you are) it was only a year, but it was real! But most of all, to Mum and Dad - my thanks and love always.

Next Year? The World!

A. James Dyack (1983-88)

Nicknames: JD, Rouge, Dy Guy, Deeceack!, Big Red, Mini

Activities: Golden Griddle Crew, 3s; Chairman, Max Gundy's Memorial Pipe Band; member, 151 Club (thanks Scott!); the Hut Rap Crew; The Paul Beck School of Creative Houseleague Fighting (remember Grade 9!); 3rd floor tanning club.

Sayings: "Just drinking ginger ale, sir." "Fitzy's is playing with Birdy's in the Field near Fantasia!" "What's that black mark on the carpet, Scott?" "Don't worry Chris, you'll get in." "Johnny, all the teachers hate me!" (See JL) "Geoff, where's your iron?" "Let's go to the hotel!" "Let's go for a smoke." "Hey Duff, did you break your nose?" "Mayur isn't that bad." "Who is Paul Beck?" "Geoff, you look tired and dishevelled." "Enjoying the movie, Elmo?" "Hill, can I use your bathroom?" "Thanks for letting me stay the night again Mrs. McGrath."

So, it's finally over. I remember the donut parties in Mac House, now it's evening boogaloo at Fitzy's. Things really change in five years, except for Mr. Smith's personal vendetta. But hey, this is home and I'm really going to miss it. Thanks to all my roommates Chris M., Dave C., Geoff H. Geoff and I really learned to keep a room messy in Grade 11. To Sarah, Jean & Wayne (and Lauren), but especially Mom and Dad... thanks for the love and support. I love you all and I wish I could have done better. Now that I think about it, I've had a great time - the friends you make will last a lifetime. Lor, Hillbilly, Beak, Grather, Cherry, McD 1 & 2, Gordo, Foxy, Fry, Kelly, Matty, Austin, Kee, Sailor, Greener, Hind and the rest of you I don't have time - these comments are due tomorrow! You guys are my best friends and I'll never forget you.

Next Year? Anywhere or I start paying my parents back!

Jeffrey K. Fox (1987-88)

Nicknames: Foxy, New Boy

Activities: First Volleyball, ISAA Champs; Pipes and Drums; First Team Golden Griddle; Late Night Memorial Movie Club; Fitzies, MIP; Official But Hut Club Member.

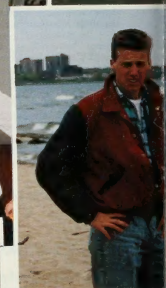

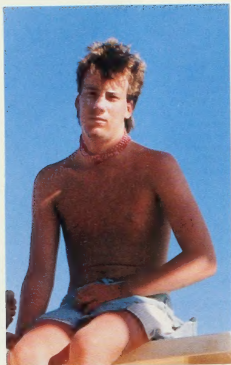

Sayings: "Who's going to the Grid?" "Let's go to the hut?" "Hill!" "Green!" "Lorimer!" "Dyack!" "No, you can't borrow my truck!" "I don't want to go to McDonald's tonight!" "Dyack, I still can't play those drums!" "Hill, wake up!" "Polish, got any good magazines lying around?"

After a quick orientation about the ways to get around rules at St. Andrew's my social life sure picked up. I would like to thank all the guys - Lorimer, Dyack, Hill, Politeski, Townsend, McGrath, Fry, Pollock, Cameron, Herbst and everyone else who took a new boy under his wing. The year has been a great learning experience, an experience that will be difficult to forget. Thank you Mom, Dad and Stacy for standing by me in good times and bad, and for sending me to St. Andrew's.

Next Year? Dalhousie or Wilfred Laurier.

Geoffrey Andrew Hill (1985-88)

Activities: First Term Housecaptain Survival Team; Golden Griddle All-Star Team; Excamsion Week '86 ("Kelly, let's go to New York for lunch!"); Chapel Steps Crew; The Ravine; W/C's; Fitzies; Birdy's; Aurora Hotel with Mr. T.; 151 Club - thanks Scott; British ID with J.L. SK, MF, etc.; tired and dishevelled; rapping at the hut; Luke the Fencer; Late Night with Elmo; Football; Rugby; Musicals.

Sayings: "Thank you Mr. Chinese Cop!" "One hot babe!" (said with a French accent) "I see tire tracks!" "Let's go for one." "All I wanted was a Pepsi."

My three years at S.A.C. have not only provided me with a classroom education but and education about life and its inevitable problems. Thanks to Mom and Dad for constantly pushing me though at the time I pushed back. Thanks for the good times James, Johnny, Mick, Cherry, Town, Fry, Gordo, Scotty, Sean, Hind, the Godfather, RUN DMC, and the Cult. Good luck to those following in my illustrious footsteps, especially Bobby, Goat, Green, Tree, Geoff and KE.

To those who've tried to help me along the way:

"Sometimes you really don't know what I mean,
Sometimes you really don't know what I need." Love & Rockets

Next Year? "Come along with me to the Congo Land..." Guadacanal Diary

Robert D. Hiscox (1983-88)

Nicknames: Bowl, Bull, Bo, Boascox, Bowlmeister, Bowl Master, Hiss, Hisser, Con-, The Doctor.

Activities: Prefect; House Capt.; Cdt. Capt.; Football, (5 a), First (2 a), ISAA Champs '86 & '87; First Rugby (4 a), Rugby Tour '86, Goggler Club; Member, exams in Keswick Club; Resident Manager of Bobby's roof-top emporium; Mac Crew; 151 Club; Buck-tooth-wings-bird hunt club; executive weight training member.

Sayings: "Duff, for someone who's supposed to be smart, you're pretty stupid." "Eat it!" "Chapel, what's that?" "Mouse, what do we have next period?" "Brew, can you get a car?" "We can't make you do it, we're only here to pump...you up." "See you later alligator."

There are many people at S.A.C. that I am in debt to for the service or experience they have lain upon me, and to them I offer many thanks. To the Brewers and my Aunt and Uncle, thanks for the countless meals and nights. Last, but not least on my list, I wish to thank Mother. I will greatly miss the friends that I have made here and hope to keep in touch with you in the future so when you are all filthy rich you can give me a job. Five years. Sometimes it seemed more like five thousand, but in reflection of the duration I have nothing but praise for this mighty institution, food excluded. S.A.C. has taught me much about myself and others; it has also provided me with many opportunities of a wide range for which I will be forever indebted. At S.A.C. to endure is to succeed. A step each day lays a road to endless opportunity. To my brother, Mike, two more years; make them interesting. To the Grads; good friends, good times, Cheers!

Next Year? Maudlin or McGill.

Duff J. McDonald (1984-88)

Nicknames: Duffmaster Flash, V.G.C., Duffer, Fluff, Rapmaster, Rough Cat.

Sayings: "Hey, can I get a ride to T.O.?" "When are you getting that car, Bowl?" "Brew, it's apples and oranges, that's all!" "Polish, shut up or get out!" "Shanks and Clebber, where have you gone?" "Rob, it's about 1 anya..." "Waldo, what are you doing this weekend?" "Lorns, I can't find a toilet!" "Mouse...high five!" "Yo Dread! (Coon, Waldo, and Rummy)" "Pass the hooch!"

Activities: Under Sixteen Football (2 a); Under Fifteen Rugby; Under Seventeen Rugby; Second Rugby; Second Swimming (2 a); First Swimming (2 a), MIP, ISAA Champs; S.A.C. in France; Head Boy; Exams in Keswick Club; New York '86; Bob's Cottage; Shipwreck '88; Goggler victim; 151 Club; Member of Blue Kittens (Coon, Heineken, Rave, and Waldo).

My four years here at S.A.C. provided a very memorable experience. I went from being McDonald V to McDonald II (always behind you, Steve!). During that time, this school gave me the chance to mature in more ways than one. I have learned a great deal more than what we learn behind our desks each day; though I am sure both will prove invaluable in the years to come. It also provided the opportunity to make a lot of friends and it's really hard to leave the place without thanking anyone. Best of luck to my roommates: D.M., J.C., Led, Shanks, Brew, and Bowl. I won't forget the good times we've had. I'd like to thank Mr. Walden, Mr. Raafaub, and Mr. Smith for all the support they gave me. To the many friends I made during this experience (GK, CH, RS, JG, AR, IP, GW, RS, to name a few...), much appreciation for making it enjoyable. Polish, you are a member of that group, surprisingly! Most of all thanks to my family, especially Mom and Dad, because without you this wouldn't have been possible. I love you.

Next Year? University of Pennsylvania or somewhere in Canada.

Christopher J. McGrath (1983-88)

Nicknames: Mick, Pretty Boy.

Sayings: "Get a haircut!" "Who's going to the Grid?" "Geoff's getting a little too cocky!" "Deeeack!" "But I'm legal...could I please get a refill on my tea?" "Choke on this, you danceteria type!" "No peace without freedom."

My five years at S.A.C. have been an interesting and eventful experience. It hasn't been easy, but as they say, nothing worthwhile comes easy. Thanks for the memories Jamie, Hill, Paul, Geoff, Tree, K, Andy, Nige, Jonny, Green, and Cherry. I couldn't have done it without you guys.

"Live a life you love;/ Use a God you trust;/ And don't take it all too seriously." "Don't let the smoke get in your eyes." Mom, Dad, Ellen, Beth: thanks for the help, trust, and understanding. I love you all.

Next Year? "I wanna go to New York City, cause they tell me it's the place to be." Demics

Adam F. Politeski (1986-88)

Nicknames: Polish, Stovepipe, Poly, Polytechclicks, Adam, John C. Holmes, Arnold, Polemeister, Pole.

Sayings: "Number Seven Platoon, Eh, Town." "We can't make you do it, we're only here to pump...you up." "Safety...Eat it Bowl." "Hey, Bowlmeister!" "What time is it?...Did I miss chapel?" "Did Julie phone?...Well, get me when she does, OK?" "What bountiful feast are we delighted with tonight?" "Hey Duft! Oh, okay, I'll leave; I didn't know you were working." "Yes, I realize my truck looks like a red tank." "Where the hell is Towner, MAC RUN!" "Turn and burn, Mav!" "Who has any food?"

Activities: Second Football (2 a), MIP, Capt.; First Lacrosse; First Rifles; Golf; French Club; Ass't Scuba Instructor; Cdt. Lt.; Weight Lifting Chairman; Rec. Squash; Midnight Mac Crew; 151 Pop Club; Waterloo Shuffle; BUCK TOOTH WING A BIRD HUNTING CLUB!

When I came to S.A.C. in '86/'87, it was a definite change from my old high school. Well, it's over, and I can't say I'll miss it. I won't miss the food either. What will I miss? The sports, friends and even the teachers. All of them. S.A.C. was really good to me. With great friends like my roommate, Matt Townsend, the work was almost bearable. Thanks to Mr. Treasure, my housemaster, to my weight lifting buddies - Matt, Robert Hixcox, and Mike Brewer; to a good looking tutor and friend, Ms. Thomson; to friends, Dufluy McDonald, Brian 'Cleb' Lesdon, and Mark 'Shanks' Sheardown; work hard in life, and don't forget to take a step back from it every once in a while. An extra special thanks to Ronald McDonald, for keeping me alive. But an even bigger one to my loving parents, who made sacrifices to send me to St. Andrew's. I love you both.

Next Year? The Canadian Armed Forces; RMC.

Robert Scott Pollock (1981-88)

Sayings: "Hey Stovepipe!" "Maintain!" "Ye Olde..." "So what's your point?" "Don't just look at it, Scott!" "Mr. Smith, can I ask you a question?" "Ken, your nose is BROKEN!" "Well, aren't you Mr. Hospitality!" "Let's do Arby's!" "You ain't goin' no place!"

Activities: In my seven years here, I have played almost every sport at one time or another. I also participated in one play and three musicals. Other activities included hiking with Scottman, the Pink Floyd Appreciation Club, Rugby (anywhere), and seven years of cadets, this flunking through three years of bagpiping, and managing to avoid rank. Quite a task!, playing "Eye Spy."

I've changed immensely in my seven years here. These changes were for the better. I've also learned a great deal about people, the system, and myself. I've made many strong and long-lasting friendships here. Sometimes these friendships were the only thing that kept me going. Now the end is near, and I am thankful, but I look to next year with anticipation.

Special thanks to my parents, who have sacrificed much to send me to St. Andrew's. I love you.

Next Year? Bishop's, Acadia, or Wall Street with Carl.

Matthew G. Townsend (1984-88)

Nicknames: Town, Skinny, Skinhead, Jarhead, Pylon, Towmer, Gord, Hanz

Activities: Under Sixteen Football (2 a); Under Sixteen Hockey (2 a); Jr. Track; First Hockey Lake Placid '86; Scotland Ireland Rugby Tour; First Rugby (3 a); ISAA 7's Con Champs '87; First Hockey; 151 Club; Bob's Emporium Owner; First Football (2 a); ISAA Champs; Sr. Squash; Buck Tooth Wing a Bird Hunting Club; Grade 11 Physics parties; Midnight Mac Crew; Weightlifting Crew (P,B,B,M); Housecaptain; Sarg. of #7 Platoon; M.W.O. C Company, Lt. Col. 142 S.A.C. Highland Cadet Corps; CO, Honour Guard, Opening of Parliament '87.

Sayings: "We can't make you do it, we're only here to pump...you up." "Wait! I've got to call Ton!" "Idiot! I forgot to call Ton." "God, I hate it when that happens." "Unbelievable!" "Brew, have you got your application in yet? Not Oh well eh." "Polish, Brew, Bowl, let's go pump...us up!" "Yes sir, I'll move my jeep." "No, I'm not going to McDonald's tonight." "A thick neck guy named Gunter."

The long haul is finally over. Looking back, it's hard to believe that there is anything beyond the gates of St. Andrew's, but now, we, the Grade 13's, must come to the realization that there is. The greatest gift this auspicious school has to offer is the friendship shared within these walls. To Brew, Polish, Bowl, Hill and other close friends in the boarding and dayboy houses, I'm glad and lucky that you were here; without good friends this school would be hell. The man who helped and trusted me through thick and thin, I would like to thank dearly - Mr. Smith. My parents, Big Don and Ger, thanks for the opportunity; and to the two Dave's - you missed out on the best experience my life has yet to see.

Next Year? Dartmouth, GMI, McMaster, Congoland.

NEW HOUSE

John Stephen Comfort (1985-88)

Nicknames: The Riddler, Comf!, Boat.

Activities: First Hockey (3 a), OFFSA Champs '86-87, Asst. Capt. '87-88; Second Football, ISSA Champs; Cross country, DYSSA Champs; Second Tennis; Cdt. Lt., Sgt., Best Platoon '86-87; First Hockey gambling.

Sayings: "Spear you!" "Hey, Sparky!" "Hey Brew - no goal, he was in the crease!" "Oshboshgosh (M.B.)"

The past three years have been most interesting. It has been a time for growth and maturity, helping me to acquire the academic tools for university. I would like to extend my thanks to Mr. Smith for helping me with Grade 13, Mr. Kinney for his support, and most of all my parents who were always there and gave me this chance to have an excellent education. In the years to come, the best of luck to SD, AN, CL, MB, and my brother, Tim.

Next Year? Notre Dame, Waterloo, NHL.

Steven A. De Piero (1982-88)

Nicknames: D, DP, Deeps, Dip.

Activities: Soccer (6 a); Basketball; Swimming; Tennis; Cycling; Kayaking; House Captain; Music Festival; Military Band; Lt. of #12, Capt. D Company; Service Committee; Review.

Sayings: "I think there may be an attitude problem here." "John...let's get Ed." "Frankieeeee!" "James! Wake up!" "I'm gonna die." (during kayaking) "Ed, why are you always late?" "And he just sits there like a piece of lead."

Six years! Has it really been that long? During my years at S.A.C. I have seen a great change in myself. From the first day to the last day as a student at S.A.C., opportunities have presented themselves and challenges have been faced. These experiences have made me grow as a person, and several have etched themselves into my memory forever.

Certainly the essence of S.A.C. is people. The teachers are more than teachers - coaches, tutors, advisors, club organizers, and friends. They demonstrate genuine care for the students and this force is felt and appreciated. You all contributed to my stay at Saint Andrew's, especially, Mr. Smith who has been my tutor for five years and who has always had the time to be of help. And yes, DAY BOYS are No. 1!!

As everywhere, friends are important at S.A.C. At a school such as this we are fortunate to be able to associate with people from such diverse walks of life. To my friends at S.A.C. (you all know who you are) - you have made my stay at Saint Andrew's enjoyable and you have opened my eyes to so much. Thanks.

Finally, and most importantly, I would like to thank my parents for the opportunities and the sacrifices you made along the way.

Next Year? U. of T. or Queen's.

Craig Stephen Dingman (1986-88)

Nicknames: Ding, DDDDDing, Ding-Dare, Merv.

Activities: First Hockey (2 a), OFSAA Champs '87; Winner of the C. Dingman Award for the worst practice attendance; First Rugby; First Lacrosse; Second Football; Yearbook; many good memories of various road trips with the hockey team (esp. North Bay and the Welcome Inn).

Sayings: "Th munn." "Awwallull!" "Hey Waz, goin' up for 2 today" "It's O.K. Mrs. Neal, I made sure they got home on time." "Coach, I'm not the last one on the bus!" "I can't make it to practice tonight - I'm not feeling up to it." "I think I'll sit in front of the cable this weekend." "Goin' over to the ladies' tonight!"

Even after attending S.A.C. for only two years, I still feel I have benefited from it as a person. The school has given me many new friends and a feeling of unity. To my parents, I send much love. Words are inadequate to express my thankfulness for all the sacrifices which they have willingly gone through for me. I also offer them these rewarding comments: when I first came to S.A.C. I was somewhat undisciplined and irresponsible but the school has successfully prepared me for university and I am leaving with a feeling of confidence. I am both ready and eager for what lies beyond the very constricted life at S.A.C.

Next Year? Waterloo or Queen's.

Glenn Michael Hant (1986-88)

Nicknames: Smiles, Smiley

Activities: First Hockey (2 a), OFSAA Champs '87; MacPherson Champs; ISI Champs; 2 years fitness with Junky, Shandy, Irv, Laf, Gobbler, Showboat; First Lacrosse; H.L. Golf; Honour Guard.

Sayings: "Oh sit down, young Mike Al!" "Hey there Junky!" "No, I'm not off to Williams to see whomever." "Jeff, which girl is it now? I've lost track after Kim." "Yah, we finally beat Nichols!" "Shandy, she's not your girlfriend!" "Shandy, don't cut her up, she's my friend."

St. Andrew's College, a fine institution, a place where friendships are formed and a place where one can excel at his studies, sports and other responsibilities. To be successful, you must be prepared to commit yourself entirely to this hectic curriculum. I now know, through much deliberation, coming to S.A.C. was a wise decision in preparing me for university, but most importantly, the "real world". Most of all I would like to thank my friends for those memorable friendships which are molded in our closely-knit community at S.A.C. Finally, wrapping up my stay at S.A.C., I must thank my parents for their everlasting support and, yes, brother and sister as well. I do know and realize the significance of the sacrifices you have made, giving me the opportunity of a lifetime here at St. Andrew's College.

Next Year? Laurier, McMaster, or who knows?

Jeffrey William Lacey (1982-88)

Nicknames: Lace, Ty-lon, Junky, Wacey, Lazer. Jeffrey Jacob Jefferson Jones.

Activities: First Hockey (3 a), OFSAA Champs '86-87; Cross-country Running, Track and Field; First Lacrosse; Cdt. M.W.O.

Sayings: "Ah Shandy." "No not Tara again (Smiley)." "Next time she calls wake us up (Smiley)." "Paul, can I have some quarters?" "Hey Babe, you do what you gotta do but don't do that." "Shandy we have to do six in five." "Bamby, look at all the cars." "Rad that was the best summer." "Sean, let's get some Golden." "What does one and sixty-six equal?" "I am Buddy Holly." "Bob, let's power nap."

Six years ago graduation seemed so far away. My years at S.A.C. have been more than an academic learning experience. Combining sports with academics on a daily basis has many advantages and can only help to prepare you for the years ahead. I would like to thank Mr. Dunford and Mr. Kimmener for their dedication to a good hockey program. I would also like to thank Mr. Gremier for his words of encouragement when things got tough. The one thing I'll really miss is the incredible sports program which made my years at S.A.C. a success. I must also say I'll miss the many crazy and chaotic antics which I have witnessed and been a part of. Thanks to Mr. Harrison for giving me such support in those early years, providing me a strong foundation to grow upon. And finally, but most importantly, I must sincerely thank my Mom and Dad for everything - yes, it was worth it!

Next year? Mount Allison, Clarkson or Tracy's cottage with Sean.

John-Paris Philips (1983-88)

Nicknames: The Greek, J.P., P.J., Jip, Pije, J.P. Bond.

Activities: First Cycling; First Fencing; First House League; Chess Club; Investment Club; Review Photographer; Rec. Cross-country Ski Team; Cdt. W.O.; Right Marker, Honour Guard, Queen's Park.

Sayings: "Hey Baby, what's happening? ...How's about a ham sandwich?" "How's it going, Eh?" "Shut up, you stupid knob!!" "Hey, ya goin' down the drive? ...Yeah!! Can ya gimme a ride?" "Curt, ya bum!! ... I gotta catch the %$% bus!!"

"I DID IT!! I graduated in FOUR years!! Academically everything went pretty smoothly at S.A.C. I had the time of my life this last year by getting involved. I will miss St. Andrew's very much and will always remember what it taught me. I would like to express my sincere thanks to all my teachers, especially to Mr. Hiltz, my tutor and Physics professor. Ward (Dr. Meagher), I'm very grateful for what you did for me. I would like to say good-bye to all my friends still in Grade 12; I wish you all the luck for Grade 13. To my loving parents all I can say is, "I made it; it wouldn't have been possible without you."

Next Year? Wilfred Laurier, Western, McGill or maybe Oxford. (Business)

Jeffrey G. Rees (1982-88)

Activities: First Kayaking, Capt. & MVP (3 a); First Swimming; Second Swimming (4 a), Capt., ISAA Champs; First Football, ISAA Champs; Under 16 Football (3 a), Capt.; Company Capt., Quartermaster, Val D'Isere '86; Founder of the 6 AM Club.

So many years passed. My enrollment consists of a kaleidoscope of memories. Turn clockwise and the best memories appear. A special thanks to Mr. Raafarub, coach, tutor, friend.

Remember, never lose sight of your dreams.

Next Year? Queen's, Western or McMaster.

Edward F. Seagram (1983-88)

Nicknames: Fast Eddie, Eddie Numchuck, ED!!

Activities: Five long years on the First Rifle Team, Capt., MVP, winner of the Cafik Award - best smallbore shot in Ontario, under 19; First & Second Kayaking, MVP; Tennis; Cycling; House League, MVP; Scuba; Scholar.

Sayings: "I don't understand!" "You started it Steven." "Boy am I ever going to get Dunlap and D.P. back!" "The car broke down, honest!"

I remember the first day of Grade 9 wondering, "How am I going to make it through five years at this place?" On that first day, I was like a misfired bullet, not knowing what direction I was heading or where I would end up. However, thanks to five years on the Rifle Team and S.A.C.'s guidance, I have the confidence and knowledge to know what to aim for in life and hit the target! Thanks to Mr. Kitchen and Mr. Myrans for their help and direction. Thank God, next year I won't have to listen to Mr. Smith say, "Do up your top button Ed!". Thanks Mom and Dad for providing the opportunity for me to go to S.A.C.; it has been an experience. Best of luck to everyone, especially the new friends I've made here.

Next Year? Queen's or if I lose the battle with Dad, the University of the South (Sewanee), Tennessee.

Nick Tsioros (1982-88)

Nicknames: Greek, Gay Greek, Dum Greek, Niko, Golden Greek, Gino.

Activities: Cross-country, Track and Field since Grade 8 (and only one injury), ISAA and OFSSA medal winner; Canadian Jr. Cross-country team '87, '88; Head of Social Committee; Prefect.

Sayings: "Did you get any SCHNAPPER?" "Pete's a rat k r!" "Just tell us when we're bothering you, Craig!" "Niko! No home running." "Until you beat me, you're nothing."

Since I arrived at S.A.C., I've noticed that time really flies. Big events like my birthday stripper seem like yesterday. Yes, I might say that the time spent has been worthwhile. My only regret is that there has been so much stress during the past six years to do my best and become Number 1 in everything I do. Some advice I would give is to never trust anyone but yourself. That way no one else ever gets the abuse you dish out to them for your own error. Then again, I don't always follow what I preach.

The time I have spent here has been full of good times (and a few bad ones), thanks to Pete, Sean, Matt, Ron, Jared, Craig, Steve and to all the other great people I've met. Well, for my parents, they know I appreciate the opportunity they gave me though I don't always show it. Thanks.

Next Year? Harvard, Chemical Engineering, or maybe Phys. Ed. somewhere else. 1992 Olympics, 5000m.

Warren R. Wilkes (1984-88)

Nicknames: Crazy Warren, Gobbler Jr., Ren, Rig Rad, Newhart.

Activities: First Hockey (3 a), OFSAA Champs '87; Nichols Beaters '88; trips abroad with the boys; First Soccer; Tennis; Lt. #6 Platoon; SKBA Club, MVP First Cable.

Sayings: "It's alright." "Not bad you?" "ONOU" "Beaujolais" "Lilou" "LAME!" "What's that?" "Timbo, you're too smart!" "I DO care, Dave." "Headin' back for 2nds Ding?" "Dave, did your Mom go shopping?"

It is time to move on to the next chapter in my life but the memories and experiences of my years at St. Andrew's College will live on forever. S.A.C. not only gave me an excellent education but a lesson in life. The long lasting tradition and pride associated with S.A.C. is a part of every Andrian and will always distinguish S.A.C. from the rest. Along with S.A.C.'s opportunities, there come many challenges. In succeeding there comes great satisfaction. These achievements and experiences have not only touched several aspects of my life, but have also made me a well-rounded person, ready to face university and life's challenges ahead. I will always remember the many friends and acquaintances made here in S.A.C.'s small community. I thank you all for making my years at S.A.C. so enjoyable. I would also like to thank all of my teachers who have helped in many ways, especially my tutor, Mr. Stuart, and Mr. Somerville (Daddy Ox), a fine teacher, housemaster and good friend.

Next Year? Queen's.

Sean Patrick Christian Sellers Wynn (1982-88)

Nicknames: Weiner, Weiny, Killer

Activities: First Cross-country skiing, ISAA Champs; First Cross-country running; Soccer; Squash; Tennis; Musicals (Grease, Lil Abner); Review, Grad Editor; Head of Mayfest; Social Committee; Pipes and Drums (5 a); Senior Choir; Jared's chalet; Matthew's ditch; Pete's cottage; Ron's girlfriends; Chris and Craig's sisters; Shipwreck '88; University visits.

Sayings: "No thanks, I'm trying to quit." "What do you mean this is illegal?" "It's not over until Bon Jovi sings!" "Man, I hate it when that happens." "Party call! Woowoo!" "What do you mean Ron can't get up?"

Although some doubt the true value of an S.A.C. education, I cannot help but look back and realize I've received much more than an understanding of Calculus and Geography. S.A.C. has taught me to compete, not just with others in academics and athletics, but with myself, to give "my all", even though I haven't always. Most of all S.A.C. has given me my friends, who in turn have taught me without knowing it. Adam, Craig and Jared have taught me to aspire, Nick and Chris - dedication, Ron - how and why to be myself (for me), Matthew - optimism and persistence (even in the face of death) and Pete - how to live, love and enjoy life even though it's a real bitch sometimes. To my other good friends - PK, JL, GH, SK, and especially to my family - Thank you.

Next Year? McGill, Western or Tracy's cottage with Jeff.

RAMSEY HOUSE

Corey T. Anquetil (1981-85, 1986-88)

Nicknames: Shandy, Mario, #66, Shooter, The Minister, Mr. Dress-Up, Shandeye.

Activities: First Hockey (2 a), Ass't Captain, OFSAA CHAMPS '87; First Tennis (5 a), Capt., MVP; Recreational Golf Training (4 a);

Sayings: "Aw Lace!" "Smiley, next time she calls, wake us up!" "Crech, no more TB's!" "Ditch de kase!" "Liz and Tammy, that is amazing!" "Mike, I told you it was a cheap scarf!" "OK, Quaker at what time?" "Shand, don't shake the bed!" "Mike, check the damage!" "Oh yeah, well looky you, Crech!" "Yeah #9, I was great!" "Don't give me the static!" "Give 'em the jaw!" "Don't touch the vault!" "My brother's late, J!" "I got frostbite!" "Sit down!" "Let loose!" "Take the wheel!" "Wuzzaz?" "Get wheels!" "Hey Chief, one up ... three down."

Seven years and the first period is over. Thank you Mr. Bedard, for having faith in me, when most had given up. Also, thanks to Mr. Jackson for his constant leadership. Thank you and good luck to the "chiefs": Lace, Shoot, Smiles, Skins, Crech, Chico, Brew, Tati, Red, Snap, Ad, Nay - Yank (the pupil). Finally, to Dad, Mom and Mel, I realize that you want what is good for me. St. Andrew's is an institute that demands the qualities essential for success: honesty, loyalty, and an effort. Thank you St. Andrew's. I've always believed the second and third periods play nicer than the first period.

Next Year? Clarkson University.

Jason A. Campbell (1982-88)

Nicknames: Gimp, Geddy, Scotty, Ed Grimley

Activities: First Team Guitar (6 a); First Team Hospitalization '86-87; Kazan River Expedition '87; Fettes College Exchange '86; guitarist for several garage bands; Member, S.A.C. Chapter, Eric Clapton appreciation society; various sporting activities.

Sayings: "Can I have a ride home James/Frank?" "Only cut a little off the back." "Whatya mean 'Who's Stevie Ray Vaughan?'" "Let's jam!" "What noisy cats are we." "Will you give me a job if my music career doesn't work out?" "Adi, Fire Gremlins!"

Six years at S.A.C. and I finally get my picture in the yearbook. I have to admit there have been many benefits from St. Andrew's. When I began my schooling here, my academic performance was erratic. I leave here a remarkably improved student largely due to the time and effort given by the masters. Not only is the education which I treasure, but my friends as well. S.A.C. has been the centre of my life for the past six years.

Lastly, thanks to Mom, Dad, Chris and Gram. Thanks also to ABJ for being one of the guys (we will jam again one day), Robo, my tutor, Mr. Ray for helping me through some tough times, JH, JD, PK, and Duff for the Friday night jams.

"And now the time has come and so ... I must go and though I lose a friend in the end you will know One day you'll look to see I've gone For tomorrow may rain so I'll follow the sun." Lennon & McCartney

Next Year? Nothing, University or the Guitar Institute of Technology.

Matthew D. Fry (1982-88)

Nicknames: Machu Fry, Young Sherlock Holmes, Neil Tennant

Activities: Under Sixteen, First Squash (3 a); Under Fifteen, Under Seventeen, First Rugby (Scotland Tour); Under Sixteen, First Volleyball (SAA champs '87); Jared's chalet; dragging Sean out of my ditch; last remaining survivor of train and ferry club (goodness it's Guinness); keeping John's secrets; (the Goth Brewer's D); Mailbox Derby; the Hut Glee Club; Golden Griddle hopeful.

Wait a minute! Is it I? There must be more! Perhaps something visual like riding off into the sunset. Six years ago, graduation was as comprehensible as puberty. On the first school day, I worried more about swimming in my undies (Thanks for the suit Sean) than education. Now I find myself on the verge of becoming a "real person". However, it is not the terrible shock I expected. S.A.C. has prepared me for this step. I look back on my time here with pride and amusement. S.A.C. runs on its staff (Thanks to Mr. Halstead), and its students. The combination of the two gives a glimpse of what the real world will be like. To my friends: Sean, Ron, Pete, John G., Jeff L., Geoff, Jared and James (wherever you are), thanks, good luck and "Say farewell, but don't say goodbye". To Mum and Dad, thank you for giving me the opportunity to come here; for your understanding, your wisdom, your love and our family.

Next Year? Crushing grapes with John in France or Guelph for Science.

Frank J. Kuppek (1983-88)

Nicknames: Cupcake, Copper, Stupid Canadian Farmer (thanks Mike)

Activities: Second Football (3 a), Champs, M.I.P. '85; Rugby; S.A.C. in France '86; 3:05 Track Team; All-Star House League Hockey; M.W.O. Cadet Stores; setting records for being absent from Chapel.

Sayings: "Hey Ding, wanna scrap?" "I know I'm late Sir, but I've got an excuse." "No Tim, you can't drive my car." "James, do I get to sleep in the basement again?" "I'll never speed again." "It's just west of Newmarket." "Bye Denny."

It's hard to believe that five years have passed since my parents dropped me off at Mac House beginning my academic career at St. Andrew's. Although at first, I was hesitant to attend, I no longer have any regrets. I have gotten more out of St. Andrew's than I ever expected and for that I would like to thank my teachers, especially Mr. Whitehead, my tutor, and Mr. Bedard for helping solve my problems. To all those people, you know who you are, who put up with me through my good and bad days - thanks. I can truly call you friends. Finally, I'd like to thank my family for their support and caring, helping me get through St. Andrew's.

Next Year? Guelph or Laurier.

Craig A. Laurence (1982-88)

Nicknames: Depends what happened on the weekend.

Activities: Football; Swimming; Cricket; Cdt. MWO; Musical Events; Shipwreck '88; S.A.C. in France '85; last Swedish survivor '84; Club Sutton (then Club Sunday); GG Club; Fitzstop; Fantasy Island.

Sayings: "Just goin' to see a movie." "No Ron, I can't go out tonight ... well OK!" "Adam, you busy?" "Nooooo (for Shandy) Let's go to Sub." "Sean, did I ask why?"

Every year I've seen Grade 13's selecting a few words representative of their S.A.C. careers. So in preparation, I thought ahead of what I'd say, but ironically, I'm speechless. Participation is the key to growth and maturity. I'd like to attribute part of my growth to the six months in France, which was the turning point of my childhood. The most important factor that helped me grow, though, was friendship. My friends are truly the best a guy could ever have. Thanks to Adam, Jared, Ron, Sean, Pete and Comf for the great times and to all the others I didn't REALLY know for the change of pace when I needed it.

A huge thanks to most of the masters, especially Count. They cared and were there when I least expected. That made the difference. A special thanks to WARD who is my oldest and wisest friend and who told me WHEN YOU OWN A FERRARI, DON'T DRIVE IT IN FIRST GEAR. Finally, thank you to Mom and Dad for making it all possible. They always held the rope attached to my waist and with age, gave slack, but now it's time to loosen the knot and, as Mark Knopfler of Dire Straits said, "Gonna ride across the river, deep and wide, ride across the river to the other side."

Next Year? Queen's Commerce.

Adam G. Neal (1983-88)

Nicknames: Big Guy, Ad, Stan, Sailor.

Activities: Prefect; Cdt. R.S.M. & M.W.O.; First Football, Champs; Second Football; Second Rugby; Downhill Ski Team (2 a); Tennis (2 a); Musical (3 a); Drama Festival (3 a); House Plays (4 a); Laidlaw House Play Director (2 a); Mayfest Committee; Senior Boys' Choir; University trip to the land of the bikers with MB, RH & ND.

Sayings: "What's up?" "She was so good looking!" "Craig, what are you doing right now?" "How ya doin' sailor? My name is Dewey Oxburger..."

When I first came to St. Andrew's, all I wanted to do was go to class and then leave for home. However, as I would leave, I would feel really empty, as though I had no part in this school. Therefore, in order to fill this gap, I made a decision to get involved (and probably at the right time). My years following were extremely rewarding and I would like to thank my friends for helping me get through: CL, ND, RR, JS, SW, CD, JC. Thanks guys, and I would also like to thank ABJ and SOM for their support. Most of all I would like to thank my parents for sending me here. "And as I watch the drops of rain weave their weary paths / and I know that I am like the rain / There before the grace of you go I." Simon & Garfunkel.

Next Year? Queen's, Bishop's, Hollywood(?)

Ronald Tobin Charles Reardon (1981-88)

Nicknames: Reg, Vern, Rock'n Ron, Rocket, Ron "Wonderful".

Activities: First Football, QB, Capt. (3 a); First Basketball, Capt. (3 a); First Track, 4 yrs; First Tennis (2 a); OFSAA Track; Cdt. Lt.

Sayings: "I'll take that, Sean. You're already slightly overserved." "Hi, I'm Ron. How about going to McDonald's or maybe my formal?" "It's optional Pete." "You look great honey, now don't be late again." "Hey Matt, you're dumber than you look." "My list is getting smaller, Sean."

Seven years of my life spent here and they give me about seven words to describe it. Oh, well! I'd like to thank the people who made this experience so important to me: Mr. Jackson, Mr. Hanson, Mr. Josselyn, Mr. Kinney and Coach Ackerman. Very special thanks to Mr. Fraser for heading me on the right path in life. Of course, thanks must go to Mr. Smith, I think, for cutting me up all the time.

St. Andrew's is a great place because to survive, you need friends to help you through the bad times as well as the good. Thanks to Sean for listening to me and for never being wrong. Pete, for always making me laugh and scraping me off the pavement. Matthew, for making me understand that it doesn't matter what other people think, Craig, for convincing me that Calculus was impossible (saved me a lot of time), Jared, for telling me to study or else I would go nowhere in life. Adam, for trying to teach me to act. Tom C. for teaching me to play basketball properly. There are many more people who were there: NT, BS, DS, RD, and of course, CA. Thanks to everyone. Mom, Dad and Kiri - I love you, never forget that; without you I would never have this chance to do something great with my life. I won't blow it.

Next Year? Bowling Green State University (Ohio)

Jared Seaman (1982-83, 1984-88)

Nicknames: Jayrod, Jare, etc.

Activities: Under Fourteen Soccer, Capt.; Hockey; Cycling; Under Sixteen Soccer (Capt.); Hockey; Tennis, First Soccer '86-87; Second Hockey '86-88; First Football, 1987 ISAA Champs (bench); Cdt. W.O. '87-88; Mayfest and Homecoming Committees; Social Committee; GG Club; Lunch Basketball; Fitztops; Fantasy Island; Jacki; Club Sutton 1987 followed closely by Club Sunday 1987; numerous field and house parties.

Sayings: "Reg, it wasn't my pass!" "Oh ya think so do ya?" "Bud for breakfast, I see." (Sutton '87) "No man, you don't understand." "Look at the lights and spit Ron." "I WANT TO BE JUST LIKE YOU!!" "Can we do this?" "It's gonna happen." "Let's get toasted." "Holmes!" "Rolled!" "No Mom, really I'm just going to the library." "Gary - are you talking to me?"

It's hard to sum up high school in 200 words! Thanks especially to Mom and Dad for the opportunity, ABJ for lunch, to Jacki who I think helped me through the toughest year of my life, no thanks to Mr. Halstead (without whom I did it anyway). Thanks mostly to all of my friends who were always there with a smart comment when I needed one - without you I would surely be at Williams for Grade 14. AN, CL, MF, SW, JB, RR, PVN, JL, CH, ES, DS (rock on!) Hopefully no-one has been left out! Thanks also to the Juice.

Next Year? McGill, Queen's, Western or Waterloo.

Robert D. Skinner (1981-88)

Nicknames: Skins, Skinhead, Phin, Bobby Fifer

Activities: Cottage Bound Club, Mucking Club at Rod's Rock'n Roll Ranch, First Hockey; First Football (2a), Second Football.

Sayings: "Hey Sarah, what smells?" "Dad, what's that chunk of mud in the freezer?" "Davey while you're up..." "Greg, we're late again." "But what do you mean we're out of pops?" "I guess it's time for a road trip." "Pete, I'll drive." "I'm cottage bound, Ronney." "Paul there's blue muck riding purple motorcycles." "Davey Davey Fifer." "Craig, can I borrow $2.50?" "Michelle, can you lend me $51.75?" "Greg, they taste like Doctor Peppers after 4 or 5." "Bagel Man, I'll see you in Jamaica, Buck, Buck, Buck!"

WOW, so this is it. Mom, can I choose next time? For future grads:

You can gaze out the window,
Get mad and get madder,
Throw your hands in the air,
Say, "What does it matter?",
But, it don't do no good,
To get angry,
So help me, I know. John Prince

Special thanks to my folks and especially Rod for getting me through three years. Thanks also to Andy (may your jokes never fail you), Coach Ackerman "The best man this school's ever seen", Mr. Hanson, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Somerville, Mr. Kinney, To Davey, Greg, Flax, Stever, Mouse - hope to see you on the other side.

Next Year? The Moon

David B. Somerville (1981-88)

Nicknames: Ox, Mr. Ox, Davey, Rig Rad.

Activities: First Football (3 a); Captain; Hockey; Basketball; Cricket; Triple Spare Club; Weight Club; Fifer Fellowship Member; Skid Skipper '87; Cdt. Lt. '88; Musical; Neil Young Club; Closet Debater, Cottage Bound Club.

Sayings: "I'm going home." "We're cottage bound, Bob." "Pete, don't write on my shoe!" "Neil is not gay." "Guys, I'm a master's son - I don't get in trouble." "I do not abuse the system." "Work? What's that?" "I DON'T care, War." "Love one, Bob." "Skuller, let's go for a boat ride." "I hate Cadets." "Compulsory is an optional word." "If the old man gated me, he'll gate you!"

The S.A.C. experience is one that I will never forget. Like anything, it has its ups and downs. I am thankful to have been given an opportunity that was otherwise not possible. I feel that to be successful here, one simply has to be himself. If you're not yourself, what are you? Thanks to the masters - Meagher, Robo, G.R.S., A.B.J., Count, Coach, Daddy Ox for being here. Good teachers are hard to come by. To my friends, you know who you are, good luck and thanks for the fun. S.A.C. is a great place to build lasting friendships. Bob, you are the brother I never had. Mom and Dad, I thank you for the gift of this education and your love and support. Dad, we made it through six years at this school and I think we've done a damn fine job. "Oh I'm on my way I know I am, somewhere not so far from here." - Cat Stevens.

Next Year? Laurier, Business Administration

Peter C. Van Nostrand (1983-88)

Nicknames: Petie, Van (add suffix here)

Activities: Prefect; Head of Social Committee '86-87 (thinks Greek); Pipes (4 a); House play '87; Folk Ensemble '86-87; Choir '86; Track, (S a), 2 ISL Championships; Cross-country (4 a); Sports Day Champ (2 a); 10 OFSAA's in 4 years; First Rugby '88; Wallace Cup '87; Close personal friend of Jon Bon Jovi; McGill '87; Basketball with the boys; Fantasy Island; Donuts for ABJ; Midnight Copy Club with Crabs.

Sayings: "Oh! So you've bin there have ya?" "Boot to the head!" "I am Bon Jovi." "Dooley BO Dooley!" "ABJ" "Are we bothering you, CRAIG?"

Five years of S.A.C. What a blast! What I have learned cannot ever be graded. To three gone but not forgotten people - PGK, Ward and the mighty Frazoo - thanks for believing in my abilities and in me. Also, thanks to Mr. Kinney and ABJ for trying to get me to chapel.

To the boys, Weenie, Reg, Matt, Jared, Craig, Greek, Neale and Fran (grad '87), memories last forever and I hear friendships do too. To Mom and Dad, a superb job; thanks for the opportunities.

"The road is long and harsh, but it's comfortable when it's paved" (Vanz '87) Thanks John, Jim and Sarah V.N.

Next Year? Life (it's a lot of fun!)

Gregory Warren Walden (1982-88)

Nicknames: Waldo, Chris.

Activities: Cottage Club; Club Pitz's; 3:30 free team; French Club; First Lacrosse; First, Second, Under Sixteen Football; Second, Under Fourteen Hockey; Under Seventeen, Under Fifteen Rugby; Second Swimming; Tennis; Squash; Track & Field; Cross-country; S.A.C. in France.

Sayings: "Bob, looks like we missed Chapel again." "Yes sir, I really was sick." "Yes Steve, I still go here." "What do you expect Waldo, it's Monday." "Saley, wake up!" "Yeah Sarah, I can smell it too." "Wiffle, wiffle, wiffle." "Nothing like an icy cold one to wake you up, eh?" "Duffy, you've got a funny bun." "Davey, while you're up..." "OK Bob, so I had two." "Duff, what ya doing this weekend?" "Hey Darel!" "Who bought last week anyway guys?" "Pete, she's a bit of a wide load." "Duff, I think I'll call her tonight." "No Dave, in the toilet!!!!" "Meet you at the grid Bob, Dave Jeremy, Ibb, Bud, Keats, John, Saley, Steve, Gord, Duffy, Steve, Geoff."

My six years at S.A.C., although not always enjoyable, have been interesting and somewhat expanding. With the exception of the S.A.C. in France program, I'm not convinced that this school has prepared me for any future any better than any other school would have. I must confess, however, that I'm grateful for some of the programs which the school offers. I'd like to give special thanks to Coach and Mr. West, two teachers I felt comfortable talking openly to. I think this school has more good points than bad, so I'd like to thank everyone who made my six years here possible.

Next Year? Africa or Jamaica.

SIFTON HOUSE

Adam R. Avruskin (1984-88)

Nicknames: Adi, Avro, Appartini (S.M.), Big Red, Joe Calculus, RED BIRD

Activities: Prefect; Head of House; House Captain; Debating VP; Drums and Pipes, MWO Bass Drummer; Running, Skiing, more running; and other good stuff.

Sayings: "Don't mess with Room 11." "Friday night - Hiscow and Taylor's room." "That's PHILBO-ISM." "Rog, Coc, you working?" "Nick, Pete, until you beat me..." "Today's the day the Red Bird flies." "Kelly, let's tag team drive." "Mouse has his morals." "House involvement, Gord, you won't like it!" "Of course I'm going to chapel, Robo." "Climp! Fire Gremis!" "Just stomach flu, James?" "Life's a double-edged sword." "Neat trick, eh?" "History seminar kit." "Phil was a good apple." "but conversely the opposite is true..."

It's richness of experience which is the aim of the whole thing and my years at St. Andrew's have certainly given me that. S.A.C. is a learning institution - academically, as well as about the people and life. The school has endless opportunities; taking advantage of them makes all the difference. The friends I have made and the great times we've had, will last a life-time in my memory. So good luck to all: to WHI - I have faith in you; to RSA and PGK - you have led me well; thanks. And to friends I'm leaving: there are beginnings and there are endings. What meaning and effect your experience here will have on your life, only you will ultimately know. The responsibility, as always, is yours to make of it what you will. Remember that today well-lived makes yesterday a dream of happiness and tomorrow a vision of hope. Do your best in all you do today - such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

Next Year? Throw caution to the wind.

Niel Burrowes (1986-88)

Nicknames: B, Wolf, Backstabber, Beaurorse

Sayings: "Yes I, Jus cool summrit." "So Missa Fish" "Easy Ferris" "Yo C" "Herc" "The Gai" "Go Ben Go" "Black Mamba" "Micheal and the Grease Test" "Chromagnon" "Batty & Bench" "Ram yo, Zeleke" "Monkey" "J.L.P." "Right I" "What to go Chris-F" "What a Leggo" "Time to find my yard" "Chop Bruck Pie Salad Goal" "Roukes, Rarr."

Activities: First Soccer, Second Soccer; Track & Field; Second Swimming; First Team T.O. Lover; First Team Cat Hunting; Club 53.75.

S.A.C. has been very good to me and I don't regret spending my last two years of high school here. In fact, I'm very happy I did, for S.A.C. has been a stepping stone to a brighter future: friends, education, athletics, and discipline. It has been almost like a two year pause in my life; it has shaped, tamed, and molded me into a stronger person in both body and mind. The boarding life was unique and unforgettable. Rog and Coco will never be forgotten. A note must be left for the benefit of the up-and-coming S.A.C. students: Saturday classes, forced cadets, Sunday night chapel, and mystery meat should all be phased out. All in all, I want to thank my teachers, Mr. Robo, and the others for my stay at S.A.C. Thanks Rog, Coco, Pascal, Core, Andrew, Michael, Monkey, Ram, T, Lopez, Jas, Zeleke, and Charron; for you are all true friends. Above all, thank you Ma & Pa, for making S.A.C. possible; I LOVE YOU!

Next Year? Western

Cameron Alistair Carey (1984-88)

Hey, Hey, Hey; what's up? I'd like to begin by saying Hi to everyone special in my life: Mom, Dad, Heather, Andrew, Julie, Auntie Marilyn, Uncle Valdo, Rog, Neil, Yohan, Macky, Daniel, Vance, Gore, Mark, Sean M., Lesley, Cam, Jason, Sean, Zeleke, Pasc, Mamba, Simon, Michael, Japes.

Thanks to all my teachers throughout my schooling here; you've done a good job teaching me... I hope. To all my friends here at S.A.C. I wish you all the best, and I hope we stay in touch and remain good friends in the future. A really big thanks goes out to all my closest friends: Andrew, Rog, B. and Ram, for always being around helping me and keeping my spirits high; see you all in the future. Tired Rog Tired. Check the wave behind this one, chief! See you at home Cally's. Yo! B! Rog, you're the best. Thanks for everything through the years. Luv ya Dad, Mom, Heather.

Christopher M. Charron (1984-88)

Nicknames: I think there's something to be said for someone without any nicknames.

Activities: The only ones worth anything were those which contributed to my delinquency.

Mom and Dad; thanks for your support. I still think you're wrong, but it's too late now. I'd like to thank Alex for being the best friend I've ever had. This one's for you.

The names change, the faces change
But the people stay the same.
It hurts, I hide from them
They can't see me
But they know I'm here.
I wait to see what the new day brings
And then pray it goes away.
Nothing ever changes now
It'll never be the same
May everyone get what they deserve.
Smiles and Daggers.

Roger Briggs Collins (1985-88)

Well, it looks as though the time has finally arrived - I honestly cannot tell you if I'm happy to leave or not; I suspect not. My happiest days were here at S.A.C., where I have made good friends with the boys, as well as the teachers. At this moment, I would like to thank my Mom and Dad so very much for this wonderful opportunity; to attend school here. I would also like to thank Chris, Mark, Daniel, Vance, Pascal, Mamba, Michael, Patu, Jason, Sean, and Cam for making the trek that much more enjoyable. A special thanks to Donna, Trudi, Cocomo, Neil, and Johan, the special people in my life, who helped me when I thought I might not make it. Also a word of thanks to last year's graduating team of Simon, J.P., and Jase who will always be good friends of mine. Lastly, I'd like to thank Mr. Robo and Mr. Smith for helping me so much in my final year. Before I go, I'd like to point out that the friends I made at S.A.C. were friends that I will have forever. I know they will be with me always, thanks a lot, guys.

Pascal Reza Gajraj (1986-88)

Activities: First Football (MIP), ISAA Champs; Cdt. M.W.O.; Deputy Head of House; 13 "Cat Hunting" with B.

Sayings: "Lorma, you going to the grid again?" "Vance, you big J... R...!" "B, you a bust a next sleep again?" "No start!!" "Mamba...you ge her de pearl necklace yet?" "Vance, where GodZillah deht?"

Although my first year was a bit painful, what with being in a new environment, and being so far from home, it was a learning experience. That is what S.A.C. is - a learning experience. It taught me so much; not only academically, but how to get along with people, and most importantly, about life itself. So now as my second and final year comes to an end, I am grateful for the experience I have gained here. Thank you S.A.C. I wish to thank with all my heart my parents, because without them I would not have been able to come here. Thank you very much Mom and Dad for everything. Thanks to Mr. Smith and Mr. Inglis for all their help and guidance. A very special thanks to Mr. Robo, who helped me so much throughout my last year. Thanks to Neil B. for being such a good friend and a great roommate, and last but definitely not least, all my friends (West Indian and Canadian) - Rog, Codi, Gore, Burrowes, Lorma, Ollie, Skins, Kells, Kee, Palletta, Hill and all the rest. Good luck next year to the Mamba, Mike S. the Deacon, Ramyo, Vance, Lopez and Cally.

Oliver Dean Herbst (1983-88)

Nickname: Pate

Sayings: "It's a given," "Classic!" "Hell, have I got a stock tip for you?" "It's a corner," "I don't know anyone by that name," "Of course I'm not being sarcastic!" "What are you, stupid?" "Whoa?" "I have a committee working on it right now."

Activities: Prefect; President of Debating Society; Member of various Skiing, Running, Rugby and Tennis teams; House Captain; Producer and Director of Sifton House Plays.

Is there a strategy to get through St. Andrew's? Well if there is one, it takes patience to discover it. New Boys fall because they look for answers. Most Old Boys fall because their cynicism makes them think there aren't any. Instead the strategy lies between the two viewpoints. St. Andrew's ends your questioning when you commit yourself to some of the programs. Friends are not made effortlessly; in the same way look at St. Andrew's as a potential friendship that requires your qualities to make the relationship run properly. Much can be gained from St. Andrew's, yet it requires your involvement. Gratitude is a feeling I have had for some time now, for my new friend, and to my parents, and Bianca, for allowing me to make its acquaintance.

Next Year? King's College at Dalhousie

Peter K. C. Kee (1983-88)

Nicknames: KeeWee, Reter Ree, Reats (J.L.)

Sayings: "Chris, I got a Ferrari this weekend!" "Mike, you dumb @$$!" "Who was that girl?" "Guess what..."

Activities: Second Football (2), Capt.; First (sometimes) and Second (most of the time) SQUISH; Part-time Tennis; Cdt. M.W.O.; Lil Abner, Creeae (sound manager); First Chapel Skipping.

Five years, it seems to be five years too long. As I reflect upon my years at S.A.C., I realize what a feat it was to survive it all. Sure, I enjoyed most of it, but at times I wished I could leave it all behind. I felt especially let down during my stay at Sifton House between Grades 10 and 12. I finally pulled myself together in Grade 13, largely due to my housemaster, who never gave up on me even after I did. Thanks Mr. Robo. Thanks also to all my friends; IG, JL, CH, JD, KW, KL, Mouse, Super G, MP (I still can't believe I roomed with you for two years), and a special thanks to Sean for his friendship and parties. Thank you Mom, Dad, and my Aunt, for all your support, guidance, and love.

Next Year? U of T or Western, partying

Scott McEwan Kelly (1982-88)

Nicknames: Skids, Scotty, Kels, Scottman, Chris, Goon I, Mr. Physics.

Activities: Prefect; Review, Grad. Editor; S.A.C. in France; First Term House Captain Survival Team; Debating; Excursion Week '86; Two week Halloween with Johnny (Nice); Shipwreck '88; Honorary West Indian; Waterloo Shuffle (Cheers Cally 'n' Cocco); Last of The Gundy Crusaders '81, SW, JD; Arby's; Pink Floyd Appreciation Club; and 18 Sports Teams.

Sayings: "Shotgun!" "She was a fast machine." "Pass that over here." "I got the last one, Robman." "Sure, I'm 19" (said with a British accent) "How's T + H?" "Nice god, Bud. Too bad we wiped out and didn't see the tuck." "What's wrong Ollie? Ralphie die?" "Hey, Joe." "Voulot, c'est pouvoir." "Happy trails."

As I blast The Cult and reminisce, I find it impossible in so few words to do justice to the very special school and group of people who over six short years have helped me change from a scrambled child to a confident young man.

The pampered environment S.A.C. offers is far from perfect, however, if you involve yourself in its wealth of extra-curricular activities and can appreciate the school's true overall value instead of wasting your time and effort criticizing the petty faults, you will reap far more than an academic education.

I look toward the future with anticipation and feel ready to move on, but will truly regret having to part ways with the guys who have been with me through thick and thin and have shown me what true friendship is all about. To the Grads, the world is for those who make their dreams come true. Good luck, keep in touch.

Finally, I would like to thank the Headmaster, the Prefects, my Housemasters and Tutors for their guidance and friendship; my favorite musicians and establishments for keeping me sane; and especially my family and special people in my life whose unconditional love and support has made it all possible. I love you all.

Next Year? Queen's, McGill or Wall Street with Carl.

Gordon B. Kemp (1983-88)

Nicknames: R.J., Loo, Rempel, Kempest, REBEL

Sayings: "SHUT UP!" "I poached that exam. I hate exams." "EFAASSYY!" "Hind, leave the superball alone!" "Svenner, where are all my clothes?" "Sure Mr. Robo, of course I'm going to breakfast and Chapel." "BILL, GET OUT; I don't care if you're just doing your job!" "Let's go to the Griddle." "Add, if it's got anything to do with your house, NO!"

Activities: First Basketball (2); Cdt. Lt.; House Captain; Sunday Paintfest. (Sieve, Saley); Mayfest Organizer; W.C.'s and FITZs midweek club; Survivor of the four-year program; Shipwreck; PSW; Rap sessions at the hut; GRIDDLE CLUB; Late night cram; ID Club with Hind (too bad your's didn't work); the IKEA Birthday club; AND LOTS OF SLEEPING WHEN I SHOULD HAVE BEEN WORKING.

Have you ever noticed when you're having fun, you're breaking the rules? Thre's company but four's enough. I have too much to say; some good, most bad, so I won't say anything else involving the school. Mom & Dad, I think it's worth it. Ask me again in ten years. I would like to wish well my followers Mike, Mase, Tullis, Saley, Vogs, Kells, and all you other losers. Finally thanks and so long to SM, ADI, MOUSE, MATT, DM, LORM, HIND, HILL, DYACK, BRAT, PGK, ROBO, INGLIS, PAO, JUICE.

Finally, this one's for JMI, Mr. Mojo (Jim Morrison), if I can find my guitar...

Leaves are falling all around/ Time I was on my way/ But still I'm much obliged/ Such a pleasant stay/ But now it's time for me to go/ The autumn moon lights my way. Led Zeppelin

Next Year? Freedom, Montreal: What's the difference? See you there, Steve.

Paul Koster (1982-88 Paul Koster (1982-88))

Nicknames: Peach, Peeji, Pajamas, Arnold, Human beat box.

Sayings: "Moomma!" "Oooh hiii!" "Wheems, let's go eat!" "What do you mean we had homework last night?" "Hey Trevor, can I borrow your..." "It's sooo cool!" "I know!"

Activities: First Volleyball, ISAA CHAMPS (2a); Track & Field, ISAA CHAMPS, (3a); Second Basketball (2a); Under Fourteen, Under Sixteen Basketball (2a); Under Sixteen Volleyball (2a); Blue Jay Fan Club President.

Whew! I can't believe I made it through SIX YEARS at S.A.C. When I first arrived, I was scared, and felt out of place. At first, I was often homesick, and really didn't like S.A.C. a whole lot. This place kind of grows on you, and you start to like it. To all you guys in the Lower School: it's really worth the wait. To those in Grade 12, now that you're in the driver's seat, WORK HARD, OR YOU'LL REGRET IT!

I would like to thank my parents for putting up with me and my grades. Hope I can go all the way! Mr. J, you were there to help, whenever, which was the best. Mr. Kobo, the best of luck to you in future years as Housemaster of Sifton.

Next Year? Houston or Vegas for Hotel Management

Matthew E. Lem (1983-88)

Activities: This and that.

SMART

My Dad gave me one dollar bill
'Cause I'm his smartest son,
And I swapped it for two shiny quarters
'Cause two is more than one!

And then I took the quarters
And traded them to Lou
For three dimes - I guess he don't know
That three is more than two!

Just then, along came old blind Bates
And just 'cause he can't see
He gave me four nickels for my three dimes,
And four is more than three!

And I took the nickels to Hiram Coombs
Down at the seed-feed store,
And the fool gave me five pennies for them,
And five is more than four!

And then I went and showed my Dad,
And he got red in the cheeks
And closed his eyes and shook his head
Too proud of me to speak! Shel Silverstein

Next Year? McMaster, Dalhousie

John N. Lorimer (1983-88)

Nicknames: Johnny, Lor, Gentle, James

Activities: First Football, ISAA Champs (2a); First Rugby (2a); S.A.C. in France; House Capt.; Prefect; Pipe Major; and yes, I was a debater too; Honourable Memorial House Member; Golden Griddle 3 year member (MVP one year); First Term House Captain Survival Team; Max Gundy Memorial Pipes and Drums; Member of the 151 club (thanks Scotty); Hut Rap Crew; The Ravine.

Sayings: "Fitzy is playing in the Fields with Birdies again in Fantasia on Wednesday!" "Hey Sean, did you hear about Val?" "Ya know what I like about this school? It's the cozy teacher-student relationship!" "Hi!!!, Deeaackk!(see G.H.)" "... made my day!" "Let's go Nipping!" "I love you, seriously!" "Who's Paul Beck?" "Squid!" "Don't forget who gave you your name, Super G." "Mick's a pretty boy!" "Hi Elmo!" "Not bad!" "A two week Hallowe'en, eh Scott? (Nice)" "I see tire tracks!"

My only regret about S.A.C. is having to watch my friends leave. I can only hope I'll always remember the good times we've had and be able to laugh at the bad ones. I'd like to thank the appropriate people for my financial aid at the school, and also my family: James, Barbara, and Mother, I love you all. Five long years have gone; not only have I learned that the area of a square equals its length times its width (I think), but also I've learned about people, which is invaluable to me. Thanks to JD, GH, DC, SK, PG, CM, JF, OH, TB, MF, SW, IV, MA, FB, AS, BH, PCK, Mr. Kobo, Claub, Coach, Big Sums, and especially The Cuit.

Never listen to anyone who has nothing to lose by your actions and good luck to next year's Grade 13's.

Steven D. McDonald (1983-88)

Nicknames: Steve, Sven-er (thanks, Pady)

Sayings: "Mouse, are you going to bed already?" "Uuh...buddy (Matt)" "You're a loser (Gord)" "Matt, I don't care!" "Yah...right." "Bill, get out!" "C. Sandwich!" (and all those other ones... Mase and Pady)

Activities: First Swimming (2a), Capt. & ISAA Champs '87; First Rugby; Football; Recreational Painting; House Captain; Host of the Cottage Party 1987-88; Quebec with Berg; Shipwreck '88; Drums and Pipes; Backdrop (2a); Mr. Smith-in-Aurora Club (Matt); 151 Club; Scotland Tour; Buck Tooth Wing A Bird Hunt Club; Goggles Party Host; Birthday Club.

My stay at S.A.C. has been great and hell. More great then hell. Believe it or not, S.A.C. does have some things wrong with it, but what doesn't? I've always been given the choice of returning next year, and I always did; I guess that says something about it as a whole. A person can benefit greatly from S.A.C., and I think I definitely have. The best thing about it is the friends you make. Thanks... all of you (notably GK, JD, RS, CS, IF, my many roommates and MM especially). Thanks Mr. and Mrs. McPherson; it's nice to have a home nearby. Thanks Mr. Whitehead, Mr. Kitchen, Mr. Walden, Mr. Pastini and Mr. Smith. Thanks Bros. Special thanks to TB. Most of all, thanks Mom and Dad you could not have been better parents in any way. Believe it or not, I've always tried my best at the things I think matter.

Next Year? Ontario College of Art, Concordia, Mount Allison, or somewhere for Fine Arts hopefully

Michael Paletta (1983-88)

Nicknames: Chooch, Tony's brother, Tony

Sayings: "Unhh!" "Yo!" "No, Tom, I don't feel like working out!" "Hey sportsfans!" "I'm not a Gino, and I don't have fuzzy dice!" "Yes, I'm on the phone!" "So, here we are..." "You bonehead!" "Hold the phone!" "Madosiki!" "Hey Av-Ruskin, make up your mind!" "Can Tucker come out to play?"

Activities: First Football (2 a); First Rugby (2 a); First Basketball; Second Basketball, Capt.; U16 Football (2 a); U14 Basketball (2 a); ISSA Play Festival; Kiss Me Kate; Grease; Death; God; Cdt. Capt.; House Captain; Head of Chapel; WWW Fan Club.

Spending five years at an all-male school can really change a guy. In my case, it was for the better. Many people have noticed the change: mentally and physically. Everybody knows the friends you meet at S.A.C. will last a lifetime, so I won't remind you of that. Thanks to everyone who has made the past five years memorable. (DS, BS, MT, JL, MO, MB, RH, CC, RC, JB, ML, CH, AP, PG, NB, ND, AA, AR, GK, ST, SM, IG, SK, PV/N, NT, AN), but especially Capter, and Tucker, for helping me through the rough times and being there when I needed them. Thanks, guys! Two people whom I need not mention already know how very grateful I am for their sacrifices, and support. I love you both!

Next Year? Pursuing an acting career.

Anthony H. Reid (1981-88)

Nicknames: Mouse, Crete, Matrix.

Sayings: "Shut up, or I'll kick your butt!" "Steve, when are you going to bed?" "I've got my morals, guys." "Scabare!" "It's 9:00, I'm off duty."

Activities: Prefect; House Captain; Cdt. Lt.; First Football (2 a); First Hockey (2 a); First Rugby (2 a); Night of a thousand moons; McDonald's Cottage 87/88; Bob's Cottage.

The past seven years I have been at S.A.C. have been the best time of my life. It has provided me with many opportunities which would not have been available anywhere else. But in order to benefit from these opportunities, you would have to get involved. If you don't do something for the school, the school will not do much for you. I have made many friends at S.A.C., and I will never forget them, the lessons they have taught me and the advice they have given me. Thanks to Bob, you're a great friend; Ian, thanks for the rides; Steve, for keeping me up at night; and also Adam and James; Mr. Jackson, for teaching me what class is all about; Mr. Herder, for your photography; Mr. Hanson, hey we've been here seven years. Finally, I'd like to thank my parents for giving me this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity; now you can afford that Porsche. Football is the greatest sport created by man: Coach, thanks for teaching me all about it.

Next Year? The NFL

Nicknames: Sal, Weener, Saleemers Tareemers, Tripod Man, Saleem Tareen Kareem Abdul Jahbar, A.J., Slim, The Dream Machine, Saul, Salami, Bengali.

Sayings: "It's in Africa!" "Jeff, you just broke the record!" "Why, Alex, why?" "No, I don't glow in the dark." "Hey, man, what are you doing?" "It's very different." "P.J., we gotta do something!" "No problem!" "OK, off the imported rug, NOW!"

Activities: Second Volleyball (M.I.P.); Track and Field (2 a); AP2 Club; Official Sifton House Calculus Tutor.

We have seen the development of our minds and souls into entities which have been appropriately fabricated for existence within the society beyond the front gates. We, the graduates, possess the capacity and the education to advance us to prosperity. We're well-dressed young adults prepared to be thrust into a complex culture, and ready to tackle the whole thing with an Andean flair. St. Andrew's College is the institution responsible for this astonishing transformation. Our minds have been enriched by the incessant dedication of the masters, and our souls touched by the lasting friendships. Particularly, I'd like to thank my Housemaster, Mr. Robinson, for his dedication, kindness, and guidance. My friends have been an essential part of my life here, and they deserve all my thanks and admiration. Thanks finally to my Mom and Dad, who made this experience possible, and who gave me support from the four corners of the globe. I will consider my opportunity here at S.A.C. more a catapult than a stepping stone, to success.

Next Year? University of Zimbabwe or Queen's for Engineering.

"[Alright] look, if you're in the penalty area and aren't quite sure what to do with the ball, just stick it in the net and we'll discuss all your options afterward." - Bill Shankly (attrib.)

SENIOR SPORTS

"They thought lacrosse was what you find in la church."
- Robin Williams

"Everyone knows which comes first when it's a question of cricket or sex - all discerning people recognize that."
- Harold Pinter (attrib.)

In athletics, our 51 representative teams earned the respect of their opponents, not only through their competent play but more particularly through the sportsmanship that has become a trademark of the St. Andrew's teams. Of note, a second ISAA championship for our First Football team. The majority of this team's victories were obtained through hard work and determination, usually under the most adverse weather conditions. The mental fortitude of the players and the excellent preparation by the coaches were the keys to the team's success.

Congratulations to the First Volleyball team for its hard-fought and unexpected ISAA title, and to our talented Golf team, which prevailed in each of its matches.

Our First Hockey team, a traditional contender for the highest honours, sported an undefeated season in ISAA and York Region regular season play. Fate and a temporary letdown prevented the team from repeating as Provincial champions.

FIRST FOOTBALL

This was another fantastic year for First Football who won the I.S.A.A. for the second year in a row. Our season started with a game against U.C.C. in which "Coach" Ackerman was hit with a misdirected double-team tackle while standing on the sidelines. Even with torn ligaments in his knee Coach refused to leave the game until its end. We beat U.C.C. 16-9; we won that game for Coach.

Our next game was with Trinity. Our first touchdown came when our quarterback Ron Reardon threw to Patrick Keating for a 60-yard touchdown. Trinity then scored just before the half to make the score 7-7. With 25 seconds remaining in the game, we attempted a field goal, but were unsuccessful. When a Trinity player kicked the ball out of his endzone, it hit the goal post and bounced back into the endzone where Greg Walden pounced on the ball to score the winning touchdown.

"It was a rainy day" when we lost the next game to Ridley. Even though we lost the game, our offensive line consisting of Mike Smith, Mike Mills, Dave Somerville, Ian Giles and Rashid Kahn did an amazing job of blocking. Our defense had a great game with outstanding performances by Rob "Crete" Hiscox, Jason Callendar and Pascal Gajraj.

Homecoming was our next game, in which we played outstandingly against Appleby. Our first touchdown came when Mike Brewer caught a punt, and then tore off into the endzone. This set the tone for the game; the offense played perfectly, with great runs by Mike Paletta and Greg Walden. Our passing game finally clicked, allowing Chris "Bud" Kelly to score his first touchdown as a rookie. Ron Reardon then proceeded to throw another touchdown pass to the ever-dependable Bob Skinner. After the game there was another addition made to the coaching staff. Coach George Jackson, an old boy, who had three years experience of First Football here and four years for the Queen's Gaels, brought some enthusiasm and knowledge to our linebackers and defense.

After we beat Appleby, it was our rematch against the undefeated Ridley Tigers. After the first half the score was 7-1 for Ridley. In the third quarter our offence stormed down the field to score three touchdowns, key catches were made by Matt Townshend. The defence had another outstanding day from Derek "Jeremy" Plaxton, Adam "Joker" Neal and Scott Bryk. Our team triumphed over Ridley to tie for first place. Ridley then lost their next game to Appleby, giving us a chance to win the I.S.A.A..

Our next game against U.C.C. would be tough.. Mike Paletta caught a fumble to score a touchdown, then U.C.C. tied the score before the half. In the second half, just as U.C.C. was about to punt the ball, Jamie Graham came out of nowhere to block. The ball went into the U.C.C. endzone and after a scramble, Mike Smith pounced on it to score a touchdown. Patrick Keating scored a field goal to knock the chance of winning the game from U.C.C.'s grasp. The St. Andrew's Saints won the game and the I.S.A.A. Championship. We'll remember John Lorimer, who played defensive end and offensive tackle; Bob Skinner who made four interceptions and finally Matt Townshend who made awesome catches.

Special mention should go to Coach Jackson for his pre-game speeches, his windsprints, but most of all for the way he brought class to the team. As for Ian Pady, I've never seen a player so excited about football before in my life. Mr. Herder, who had a constant interest in the team, was always ready with his camera. Finally, Rob Savage; a finer manager there never was. Good luck to the returning players next year.

FIRST SOCCER

On paper, it doesn't look as if we had a successful season, but I would view it differently. The team is still young and we hope to have most of them back next year. We decided to play in the York Region League, so that we had more competition. We started off very timidly and only won two of our first seven games. Crescent and UCC were two of the strongest teams, and gave us lessons in how to play. At this point, we decided to put in an extra defender in our line up; that means one less attacker.

As a result, we scored more goals (!) and only lost two of the last eight, (one game to the provincial champions). Devitt, Stein and Tawil were very effective as fast, breaking strikers. I love to see the ball hitting the net. We suffered many injuries to our midfielders and never had a settled line. Burrows really worked hard and played well towards the end. Collins became a very effective sweeper and he contributed much to the success of the later games. We loved beating Appleby and Ridley had a real fright and could only take a point from us. We didn't make any play-offs but we have served notice to everyone that we'll be in the hunt in '88.

FIRST VOLLEYBALL

The volleyball team this year succeeded in catching the ISL championship, which had eluded the team last season. With an 8-2 record, the team entered the quarter and semi-finals confidently, sweeping the '86-'87 championship team, St. George's, in the quarter-finals and Hillfield in the semi-finals.

In the finals against TCS, luck went against us in the first game, when we lost against their powerful defence, 15-12. In the second game, it seemed as though we were destined to repeat last year's poor finals when we were down 12-6, but with the lead of Andrew Palazzi and Tom Capling's powerful spikes, we rallied and managed to trample their lead and win the second game, 15-13. With spirits high, we managed to increase the fight's tempo and power, and finished them off in the fourth game with a weak side power hit by Matthew Fry for the gold.

Because the sport is very team oriented, everyone on the team deserves equal recognition and thanks for a competitive, yet fun season. We would also like to thank Ms. Thomson for her superb coaching, patience, and her ability to laugh at the darkest moments, as well as the fans for the support we received. We're looking forward to another winning season next year.

FIRST BASKETBALL

"Chief, Rocking Ron, Major, Harels, Gordo, Caper, Chooch, Tank, Foster and the Shaw! Not to forget our fabled coach, 'Juice'!" Did this team have character or what? These are just some of the names that followed the members of first basketball and their coach around during the 1987-88 season. The team had a fantastic year as well as a rebuilding one. Despite the fact that we played .500 ball for most of the season, it was a team in fact that had winning traits. In ISAA, we finished third over-all after squeaking into the final tournament. Unfortunately, it didn't click in its opener against UCC. However, we did rebound back in the Consolation to thoroughly trash Crescent. Our York Region League was quite successful as well as we not only made it to the playoffs but surprised everyone by beating a top-ranked Williams High. This feat in itself, showed the great talent extant on our ball club. In doing this, we went to the York Region Semi-finals for the second year in a row, and after keeping pace with highly rated Unionville, we lost the game. This year's team was not only a pride for St. Andrew's, but a pride for all the players on it. BEST OF LUCK TO NEXT YEAR'S TEAM!

FENCING

After a year's absence, the Fencing Club was "reborn". A surprise large number of boys turned out to try one of the most exotic sports of at SAC. At one point, nearly fifty boys were trying their hand at the sport. Due to limitations of equipment as well as instructors, the group reduced to 22 boys, a difficult process because of the enthusiasm of the boys.

In January, the practices took on a more serious note as we began to get ready for our one big tournament in February. The boys found that one cannot come and "play Zorro" in one easy lesson. Like ball gymnastics, many hours have to be spent drilling the basics. The demands and pressures from other areas - the musical, debating, and studies caused some of the boys to fall by the wayside. By tournament time we were down to about fifteen boys.

On Feb. 20, a total of 27 boys, representing S.A.C., May Secondary School, and the Toronto-Waldorf School met here to take part in a day-long tournament. It was a long hard day and S.A.C. did not win the top honours as it had in previous years, but we played very well. Most importantly, we benefited a great deal. There is the possibility we will compete in yet one more competition, but whether we do or not, there seems to be a determined group of boys who will try out once again next year. Fencing seems alive and well at SAC!

FIRST HOCKEY

This year's version of the Saints had a hard act to follow - an '86-'87 OPSSA championship - and they started out like they were going to repeat last season. Led by the solid defensive work of Mike Brewer and the scoring ability of Corey Anquetil, the Saints went undefeated in the ISAA regular season and the YRSSAA regular season.

While the team lost in both the ISAA and the DYSSAA Championship play-offs, it had a super year beating rivals such as Nichols three times, UCC three of five and Trinity three of four. The Saints finished second in the Ridley Tournament, third in the TCS Tournament, and a very respectable third in our own MacPherson Tournament.

In the end, the breaks and bounces weren't going our way; sickness, injuries to key people and inconsistent effort cost the team its real goals. So while the highs were good, the lows were 'brutal'! This was the last year for some fine players whose careers will continue elsewhere - Captain and MVP, Mike Brewer - the leader; Assistant Captain, John Comfort; Corey Anquetil and Anthony 'Mouse' Reid. Craig Dingman and Warren Wilkes from a defensive squad that gave up the fewest goals in ISAA, and goaltender Matt Townsend are MIP's. Jeff Lacey, Bob Skinner and Glenn Hant - their importance to the team was most evident when they weren't there.

This was also the last year for Coach Grenier who will take over one of the other levels of hockey at St. Andrew's as Head Coach. Thanks Beaujolais. And thanks to the whole team for a good season.

CROSS-COUNTRY SKIING

This year's weather conditions took their toll on morale and fitness levels. We seemed to spend endless amounts of time in the bus chasing after snow. Roller skiing was fun for a while but nothing replaces the real thing.

Nevertheless, this group was made up of some very dedicated and determined individuals who always made the best of even the worst situations.

The Senior team qualified for the Ontario finals as did three juniors. We found the competition at OFSSA very tough but finished respectably in any case.

RIFLES

The first rifle team this year was a great success thanks to the steadfastness of its members. We placed second as a team in the Ontario Rifle Association Competition, losing our grasp of first by only eight points out of 2400. Bjorn Bjerkhamn placed first individually in Ontario and Ed Seagram placed third. A special thanks to Mr. Myrans for his determination and superb coaching.

1987-88 was a pretty successful year for squash. We set out to play the softball game only, and at this we were very strong. We played 9 softball matches, and lost only one (to a 6-man Crescent team). Even the dreaded Crescent side was really only too strong for us at the top three positions. Inevitably, we got drawn into some hardball matches as well; and in spite of no special training and practice, we did quite well even here. At the ISAA hardball tournament, our first five looked like the third best team, after Crescent and UCC. Over the season, a total of 17 boys played representatively at one time or another, for Seconds or Firsts. The ISAA softball finals proved to be a truly exciting day, both for Firsts and Seconds. In the Seconds tournament, SAC were finalists, losing to UCC. Meanwhile, the Firsts were having a titanic battle, and came within 4 points of beating the vaunted Crescent side. Congratulations and thanks to this year's captain, Michael Ross, who played exemplary squash throughout the season and was our MVP, and to our newest recruit, Albert Chan, who came up from nowhere to earn a place in the Seconds, and the MIP award.

FIRST SWIMMING

This year was the start of a rebuilding period for first swimming. With the team made up of only three returning members, we weren't expecting a title. With five swimmers returning next year (Dickson, Lopez, MacPherson, Aylsworth, Anfossi), the team's future looks bright. Any of these five has the ability to be a major force in the I.S.L. next year. Many thanks to the departing swimmers, Steve and Duff McDonald, Steve DePiero and Jeff Rees and to Coach Walden. Corey Williams fits in here somewhere, although I don't know just where!! The SAC swimming dynasty (3 wins in the last 5 years) appears to have fallen to the opposition's "imported" swimmers. However, with all of our returning talent, it may be just beginning.

FIRST CRICKET

The First Cricket Team was consistent. Modesty often forbade us from taking either a score book or scorer to our games. In fact, there is no record of our matches. The team suffered a series of serious losses. Some might have been humiliated. Some might have given up. We played cricket that might have been played on Candid Camera or Monty Python. Yet every run, wicket or catch was greeted with a commentary of cheers and jokes concerning the personality, origin or tendencies of a new hero. How could our students have enjoyed their cricket so? One of the answers to this question is the personality of our captain and M.V.P., the "Spinnist", Roger Collins. Another was the commitment and development evident in the performances of our M.I.P.'s, Anthony Sam, and Patou Zeleke. Another more serious answer is that cricket is a great game and it gives to its players many other benefits than just winning.

GOLF

The 1988 St. Andrew's Golf Team had only one golfer - Dave Foster -, returning this year. Our chances of winning another championship seemed dim.

For the first tournament at Trinity our team was made up of Craig Matheson, 8th Grade; Ken Innami, 9th Grade; Kent Matheson, 11th Grade; and Dave Foster, 12th Grade. Not only did we win, our 8th Grader was our low scorer. The following week at Lakefield we won again with Dave Foster our low scorer.

Then came the big test, the I.S.S.A. Championship. Dave Foster led our team to another win with a lot of help from the rest of the team. Dave Foster was our M.V.P. With the whole team returning things are looking pretty rosy for next year.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Mainly because of injuries, the Cross-Country Running team suffered greatly this year. Runners INick Tsioros, Pat Bansa, Ryan Wyndeler and many more were injured during the season. However, we managed to win the York Regionals thanks to Ron Reardon, Alex Stein, Peter Hickey, Anthony Cericola, and Fergus Prentice who all came to give us a hand for this event. Congratulations to the Midget team for their enthusiasm and achievement and thank-you to Mr. "Dead" Fish for his help.

KAYAKING

This year was a short, but very exciting year for our Kayaking teams. Yes, there were the long bus trips, the surfing waves, the attempted ends and other thrills of paddling whitewater rivers, but this year we were in the medals too. At the Beaver River, Seagram and Savage won Gold and Bronze medals, and at the ISAA final on the Gull River, Savage and Kurian won Gold and Silver medals; this alone would have been S.A.C. history in the making. Not to be outdone, our team captain Rees and first mate Stuempel were invited to race and train with the Canadian National Team! All the best to our paddlers this summer; it has been a memorable season.

FIRST SACROSSE

The spring of '88 marked the first season for lacrosse at SAC - ever.

We started out in early April, with only four or five players who had ever held sticks before. Consequently, the early part of the season was... interesting. The team started to come together at the Bayview Tournament, where we finished winless, yet were within two goals, in three out of four games.

The highlight of our season was the OFSAA finals where we won our first game. We defeated Peterborough 9-3, then went on to the consolation finals, where we lost a close 4-3 match.

All in all, the entire team had an enjoyable season, and by the end of May, we had a team of very respectable lacrosse players.

Thanks to: Fraser Cowell for coaching and making it all possible, Coach Ackerman for his inspiration at the Ontario Finals, Derek Plaxton and Craig Dingman for helping out along the way.

SENIOR TRACK AND FIELD

This was a very successful season for both the junior and the senior track and field teams at SAC. Both teams were characterized by a great deal of team spirit and enthusiasm. They were teams where many would help and encourage others in practice, and be there to cheer on their teammates in competition. Many on the track team completed for the first time this year and did reasonably well. Seventeen athletes, most in their first year, qualified for OFSAA regionals which is quite an accomplishment. Many offered leadership and support, and everyone was a part of a strong nucleus which will be valuable to the team during the next few years.

Congratulations are extended to Nick Tsioros who ran a personal best in the steeplechase at OFSAA to finish with a bronze medal. Nick has been a valuable member of the SAC track and field team for many years. Thank-you Nick for your leadership and valuable experience over the time that you were here. We wish you the best for the future in everything you may do.

To all team members, thank you for your dedication and hard work; let's encourage more people next year to be part of a fun and spirited team.

RUGBY

We inherited a very talented side from Mistrs Swan and Kitchen. This year, we thought we would win everything! As it turned out, the championship was not to be ours, but the season was no less enjoyable. The team worked hard and also had fun. The beginning of the season looked promising with wins against all comers in exhibition, including a touring side from BCS in Quebec. Victories were also recorded against Crescent (twice) and UCC. Unfortunately, we had lost some key players due to injury and were edged by Appleby, TCS and Ridley. These last games were real tests of strength, endurance and skill. We played well, but could not quite match our opponents. However, they knew that they had been in a game.

SENIOR TENNIS

Tennis won the Silver Medals this year at both the First and Second Team levels. We beat Ridley and TCS and Crescent and Appleby and Holy Trinity and Lakefield. But there was one school, our old nemesis, who just had too many horses.

So goodbye to Corey Anquetil who performed powerfully on First Tennis for about six years; he was cantankerous as ever on the courts, and with partner Ron Reardon, won the York Region Doubles. Goodbye to the hot-water boys Chris Gore and Cam Carey who won I MIP and II MIP respectively : Ben Woo to challenge all at #1, Mike MVP Ross and Chris Kelly to form a skilled pair, Walker Ross and a whole gang eager to play and win. It was great to see Double teams winning most of their matches.

SECOND FOOTBALL

This was the first rebuilding year that Second Football has undertaken in years. The few veterans tried to inject enthusiasm and drive into the team. However, our two wins and four losses indicate that it was not to be. Chris Tullis was our top point getter with 14. The MIFs were Adam Politeski and Rob Katic. Our captains were Rob Vogel, Adam Politeski, Geoff Hill and Craig Laurence. Next year onward and upward!!

SECOND BASKETBALL

The Toronto Maple Leaf hockey team and SAC Second Basketball had one thing in common this year - lousy "stats" in the win/losses columns. Otherwise there was no comparison between the two teams. The boys in red always came to play unlike the boys in blue and white. We were always competitive, unlike the "Buds", and no matter what, we never gave up. The team consists of players who are not quite skilled enough for the varsity, and too old for the age level teams. What makes them different is that the players are there for the love of the sport pure and simple - there is no hidden agenda. And so it was with this year's team - a collection of keen players and two human nerve endings masquerading as coaches. In the final tournament at UCC, we saw it all come together with a victory in the consolation championship game, when we defeated Pickering College. Thank you for letting me get to know you, and myself a little better. To J.M., the pride of Dunnville, a gold star for a job well done.

SECOND VOLLEYBALL

Second Volleyball can't be classed as a winning team this year but it wasn't due to our lack of trying. Because the team was made up of quite a few new and first time players, inexperience was the problem. Homecoming brought our first victory and break to our losing streak, proving to our coach, Mr. Kocher, that we could win. Into the season, we put more emphasis on learning the real fundamentals of volleyball. Everyone improved - unfortunately, all the other teams did too. Our season came down to the final tournament at Holy Trinity School. Our team received a deserving win to keep us from finishing at the bottom of the standings.

SECOND HOCKEY

This was a season of highs and lows for the team. Although it was not successful in winning a championship or in having a dream season, the players did show a lot of hard work, enthusiasm, determination and spirit. Many of the players greatly improved their hockey skills and developed into fine players.

M.I.P. could have gone to a number of players such as Scott Kelly, Craig Sterling, Trevor Fuller, Andrew Luks, Manabu Mimaki - but the one player who improved the most was Chris Kelly, a hard checker with the knack for scoring the big goal in crucial situations.

The team was led by Captain Brian Ledson and Assistant Captains, Mark Ibbotson and Renny Monaghan. Finally, thanks to all the players for putting forth their best effort and always coming ready to play.

SECOND SWIMMING

Second Swimming had an interesting season, to say the least. We had early problems, with people not coming to the practice. As the season progressed, we lost swimmers to sickness, and others were unable to cope with school work and swimming. But for those who stuck with it, the rewards came when we finished second in the final meet, after winning only one the entire season. Thanks should go to Mr. Raaflaub who worked us hard before the final meet - it paid off!!

SECOND SOCCER

"Hunting Rex following nasal explosion!" - M. Ellinger "Certainly the most memorable event of the soccer season was the tournament at TCS. We arrived at TCS with a small team due to the absence of several key players. We played with pride and determination and lost 1-0 in a well played semi-final match." - S. DePiero "I felt that the soccer season came to a roaring climax during our final match of the season, versus Upper Canada. Although we were defeated, we came together as a team. The defence halted the advance of the frustrated UCC players, while the offense made attack after attack, although unsuccessful. We proved beyond a doubt that we were the more savage side." - P. Morgan "The score was 1-0 for the good guys. The ball was in the TCS zone, when it struck. The ice pellets began to spit, then shower, then torpedo. TCS were in shock. The other side of the soccer field could not be seen. Then, suddenly, out of nowhere, came a soccerball and a red-shirted wonder with number seven on the back. Suddenly, the ball was sliding along the mesh at the back of the net." - A. Burns "Waking up, the Saturday of the Second Tournament at TCS I found 10 cm. of beautiful, white snow on the ground." - R. Kopas

SECOND RUGBY

This year's second side was populated with an interesting mixture of talents. Many players, such as Sheardown, Vogel, Pollock and Cameron, had a great depth of experience from which to draw. These fellows helped us immensely, because their knowledge of the game allowed them to guide the rest effectively. We counted on their leadership and ability. They always came through. Many had never played the game before and consequently, had a large amount of catching up to do. Clarke, Barton, Luks, Van Nostrand, Robinson and AvRuskin came along exceptionally well. AvRuskin made so much improvement that he was voted MIP (and proved to be a fearless back in very quick order). Other stalwarts were members stolen from the U17 side. Ketchum, Pantelidis, Robinson and Hilton served their school well by playing some games for us. They each made fine contributions. Many thanks.

UNDER 16 VOLLEYBALL

With U16 players like Matt Harrison, Mark Major, and Tim Stuempel moving up next year, I am confident that 1st Team will repeat their championship.

Matt Harrison, captain, was the passing expert of the team and he always played with the intense desire to win. When Matt connected, the boom from his hit could be heard throughout the gym.

Mark Major, assistant captain, was the hitting powerhouse of the ISAA at the U16 level. During our games, it was wonderful to watch Mark intimidate the other side with his skill. The height of Mark's vertical jumps gave him the ability to 'spike' straight down. For his overall performance, Mark was selected as the team's MVP.

Tim Stuempel has come a long way since he first joined U16 Volleyball. One of the cleverest players, Tim could always out-think the opposing team. He would hang in the air, hesitating for a second, and then pass the ball to a spot on the court which wasn't defended. Tim will be one of the star players on 1st Team.

Gene Cheung, team MIP, started volleyball this year and holds great promise. His ability, and height, will make him a key player. Andrew Bulas was our main setter...always colourful, always ready for the next play. Marco Jones played superbly in our final tournament.

While we finished 3rd in the league (based on season and tournament play) after Hillfield and Trinity, there is great hope for the future. We have extremely fine players like Richard Vaughan, Andy Kawai, David Kim, and Jeff Hobbs. Ahmet DasGupta, Mark Wicks and Steven Skovhøj also have the skills needed by the volleyball teams at SAC.

Every one enjoyed playing ... we played our best. Onward to next year!

UNDER 14 VOLLEYBALL

After a slow start, our team came together as a unit during the ISAA tournament. At the tournament, our team won 7 out of 8 qualifying games, giving the team a playoff berth and a first place finish. The team made it to the finals, but unfortunately, lost to St. George's. The whole team should be congratulated on their steady progress throughout the regular season and on its excellent showing in tournament play.

UNDER 16A SOCCER

The UI6A soccer season was truly an act of retributive justice. As soon as we saw the talent of this team, we realised that our team was destined to win it all. My teammates never had the intention of being so Immodest as to flaunt our talent throughout the season, and so collectively, we formulated "Operation Doorknob". It was quite obvious that our primary objective was to build up the confidence of other teams in the league, and then crush these convictions in the final tournament. Throughout the season, the team's morale broke only once or twice, which resulted in a deeply regrettable win. Fortunately, we were able to quickly get our priorities back on track. The ISAA tournament finally came and our whole team was in joyful anticipation of the inevitable victories to come. "Operation Doorknob" rose to crush the smiles and confidence other teams had accumulated throughout the season. Mr. Clements, Jim Mirkopoulos and I recognized two players who contributed the most to our brilliant performance: Nick Rose and Daniel Thwaites. Thanx for a great season guys!

UNDER 16B SOCCER

This year, our stats weren't as good as we wanted them to be. We won the first few games, which were against Lakefield and Trinity College. Unfortunately, we lost the following game to UCC. After beating Pickeering College, and then narrowly losing to Ridley, we entered the final ISAA tournament. We went in with our guns loaded, ready to win, but we came out empty-handed. Even so, we had fun. Our captains, Geraint Khan and Rob Walker did a good job of leading the team. I must also thank Mr. Jones for continually exemplifying his unparalleled coaching abilities throughout the season.

UNDER 14 SOCCER

This team was a total embarrassment - they just kept on scoring goals. Before the first game at Hillfield, the kindly coach advised them that they had to score three goals a game in this league to win; they showed they weren't listening by winning 2-0. After that the floodgates opened; our record was 10-0-0 for a perfect league championship. We scored 62 goals and let in 8; we beat UCC 6-0, TCS 7-1 and Ridley 11-0. We even ended up with our goalie, Rob Asquith, scoring on a penalty-kick. In the whole season he let in only one "soft" goal. He was in New York during the tournament; we lost our first and last game deservedly to Appleby. In front of him, Kevin Mertens and Brian McKague were minor and major tornadoes on defence, with fearless Michael worrying the opposition. In the centre, Rob Mantrap dominated as Captain, Matt LeCuyer showed aggression, Mark Etherington won his MIP and Brent Riopelle, Ken Innami and Tom Brooks played keenly. On the scoring-machine line, Scott Armstrong showed an instinctive knack in putting in some 25 goals to win the MVP award; Richard Ting was our most talented ball-controller; Nick McQuire and Mark Shillum were constant threats on the wings; and James Watkins put on the feat of the season by scoring five times in a half-hour game.

A critic might say we were a bit slow afoot, and we never gained the experience of fighting back when behind. In the final tournament we rolled up another five victories until, like the Blue Jays, our season went one game too far; nevertheless, a brilliant and happy team.

This youngest of all our soccer teams had a very busy season, one which left everyone feeling as though they had laboured in a good cause and achieved something special. A lot of different people showed that they cared about us and were willing to share in the hard drills and the fun scrimmages. Along with principal coach Mr. Rupert Ray and the school's soccer co-ordinator, Mr. Peter Robinson, we had regular visits from two memorable gentlemen, Mr. Rick Ahoe and Mr. David Reid.

After the first six games we were 2-2-2. Then we went to the National Independent Schools' Tournament for U13 teams. Once again we came out 2-2-2, but we were only left out of the consolation final by goal average and felt we had gained valuable experience. The final six games were a different story. After a tough 1-2 loss, we finished up with a five game winning streak including victories over two of the teams which had defeated us earlier in the season.

Our Captain, Christian Stein, became more comfortable in his role as the season progressed. Jason Reid was reliable in the net at all times. Jose Sotres and Steve Rees were the foundation of our defense along with Chris Byrnes, Robert Keto, Martin Alexander and Jon Arciszewski. Adam Smith and Cyril Yee came on from the sidelines and gave their best when called upon. Across the front line of attackers we featured Bruce Ellis, Mike Kingston, Joshua Ginou, Craig Matheson and Geoff Brennagh.

Picking two individuals for particular recognition is never easy, but in the opinion of the coaches, this honour belonged to Robert Keto (MIP) and to Steve Rees (MVP); Steve didn't score many goals but he unselfishly and cheerfully helped the rest of us to play better. Of such qualities are great teams made.

UNDER 15/16 FOOTBALL

The title of this article gives some idea of the troubles we encountered this year - a team comprised largely of players under 15 years of age playing against teams where most of the players were a year older. At this age one year can make a whole lot of difference. Next year, with a whole bunch of 'veterans' it should be a different story altogether.

Despite all this we had an exemplary season. Not great in the win/loss column, maybe, but certainly in terms of the personal development of all the players. With very few exceptions, most of the team members were playing the game for the first time. They had to master blocking techniques and strategies, complex offensive formations, and a host of defensive responsibilities. One does not master a game such as this in one short season.. The coaches would like to thank all the players for their contributions.

UNDER 16A BASKETBALL

As per usual, a very large number turned out for the team which again allowed for the creation of a second team - largely an U15 squad. Again, those players who graduated from the U14 level had problems at the beginning of the season in adjusting to the demands at this level. However, as we progressed, the youngsters learned to stand their ground and the team made progress. One of our highlights came early in the season, with a clean sweep victory which enabled us to win the St. George's Invitational Tournament in November. From here, we went on to several solid victories before encountering our first loss against our old nemesis, Crescent. At this point, the tide turned a little with the loss of Chris Catrall until nearly the final tournament. Our season was most successful and all the youngsters of last year sharpened their skills as vets this year. However, as one of our captains puts it, "When you're hot, you're hot, and when you're not, you're not", and in the final tournament we were not. Many thanks to our captains, Matt Harrison and the 'Masher', Kent Matheson, for providing leadership throughout the season. Several players made valuable contributions to the team effort. The team chose Kent Matheson as MVP and Hugo Jeffrey as MIP. Most of the team will move on to the next level next year and should provide a very strong team at the first team level.

UNDER 16B BASKETBALL

The U16B basketball team began the season with a four game winning streak. This was followed by three losses all in one day at the King City Tournament. All the games were close, but we couldn't come up with a win. Returning to our league we finished the season with only one loss, splitting two games with Upper Canada. Our regular season record was eight wins and one loss. Entering the U15 tournament at Hillfield, we lost a close game to Upper Canada, and then won our next two games to finish as Consolation Bracket Champions. Our captain was Gene Cheung. David Kim was selected "Most Valuable Player" and Paul Randlesome was "Most Improved Player". Liam Robinson was our manager and sometime player.

UNDER 14 BASKETBALL

The Under 14 squad as usual required a large amount of hard work and dedication from all of those associated with the team. Eight members of last year's Under 13 group were able to make the team along with our only returning member, Captain, Scott Armstrong. An influx of five new boys to the school included Craig Matheson who brought a wealth of experience.

In the early part of the season, our guards carried us while our centres and forwards spent time learning a new game or refining their skills. Both Rory Manning and Eric Wright slowly developed into reasonable low post players by early January. The team finished the season with a record of 14-3. In the St. George's Invitational Tournament in January we played one of our best games of the year in a 52-51 loss to UTS. In the ISAA tournament at St. Andrew's, we reached the finals for the third consecutive year and faced Ridley College whom we had beaten on three previous occasions. The game was a see-saw battle from the start but an all round fine effort by our opposition gave them the championship by a margin of 36-35.

I would like to mention a few boys for their contribution to this most successful year. Mark Shillum and Brent Riopelle should be commended for the improvements they made during the past year. Similarly, one cannot help but be impressed by the contribution made by Craig Matheson who was our top scorer and this as the youngest member of the team. The team elected as our MIP Burke Erwin, and our MVP Scott Armstrong. I would like to say a special thank you to all of the boys on the team for the co-operation and dedication they exhibited.

A rebuilding year is often one of frustrations, highs and lows, excitement and despair, agony and ecstasy and this year was no exception. The team played through much of the season with two forward lines and four defencemen and this often led to problems against teams with more depth and strength. Nevertheless, we were always very competitive and now have a nucleus of excellent players who will be looking forward to a rewarding time next winter. Thanks to all the players, our Manager, Jack Frost and Mr. Cowell who helped us invaluable on many occasions. Finally, best wishes to those who will be moving up to the senior teams. Here's to next season.

The season started with a 5-5 tie against TCS before Christmas. After Christmas, an U15A team (a combination of the A's and B's) won the first tournament, winning four straight at Appleby. Our season record ended at 6-5-2 which was excellent considering we scored few goals, and played many A teams. Our team was built around the solid goaltending of Courtney Powers and Rob Hobbs. These two were exceptional and kept us in the games we ended up losing. Defence was a strong point, the size of which intimidated many opponents. They took many foolish penalties but were instrumental in the team's success. Mikol, Di Battista, Wharton, and Zwingenberger led the way. Our forwards were small but forechecked well. Collingwood led the team in scoring. Brett and Andrews killed a bulk of the penalty time and were excellent at doing so. The final tournament of the year saw us finish second after losing to Albert College in the final (4-0). We got into the final on a come from behind tie over TCS which enabled us to advance due to our defensive record. Thanks to Mr. Cowell for his time and expertise and special thanks to Sean Collins, our trainer, who did more than was necessary.

JUNIOR CROSS COUNTRY SKIING

This year's Junior Nordic Skiing could have been described as, "Walk softly, but carry a big stick!". The team did very well this year. Ian Michael, who placed first at DYSA, and Anthony Cercola, who placed sixth at DYSA, led the team to a remarkable year. Even though there was only two people who made it to OFSAA, we all had a fun time, especially during our "after-school scenic jog". This year at DYSA, the junior nordic team would have been first, but the age restriction applied and we were knocked down, because one of our members, David Michael, was too young to qualify. Special thanks to Mr. Harper for his fine coaching.

UNDER 14 HOCKEY

Under 14 Hockey had a good season, finishing with a 9-7-1 record. All the losses were by close scores, indicating that with a little more push, either offensively or defensively, the victories would have been more numerous. Rookie goaltenders Chris Stein and Jason LaMarche performed well between "the pipes" and should strengthen the team next year. Defense was our strength, led by our co-captain, Rob Mantrap, Nick McQuire (point leader) and Jeff Brennaugh. Their ability to control the puck in our end and move it into the offensive zone was second to none. Our forwards were the work horses, forechecking and backchecking to create their opportunities. The hitters were McKague, Arciszewski, Brooks, Ellis, Bedard and Pepper who worked the corners, while Mertens and Reid were our play-makers. Although we had our smallest numbers ever, trying out for the team, the quality, especially at the U13 level was excellent. These players should provide a strong base for the team next season. Thanks to all for the hard work.

JUNIOR SQUASH

Coming off a superb season in 1987, when we won both the hardball and the softball championships, we discovered that we could only live up to half the burden put upon us by winning the hardball and narrowly losing the softball. Special thanks to our coaches, Mr. Robinson and Mr. Jones, who were known to have flipped coins to decide which teacher would accompany the team to away games. Honourable mention must go to Stule Smith, and Derek Zobelein (MIP), next year's team leaders, and also to Adam Smith (MIP), a very enthusiastic grade seven who will undoubtedly become very competitive in years to come, and to our co-MVPs, Ashley Newell and Ben Woo.

UNDER 15 TENNIS

There is something almost magical about the arrival of spring: warm weather, sunshine and tennis season. A genuine enthusiasm encourages a strong turn-out, as the courts are overtaken and overcrowded with eager tennis players. They swing their rackets and hit the ball with various degrees of success, in an effort to recapture or discover the skill that will enable them to make the team.

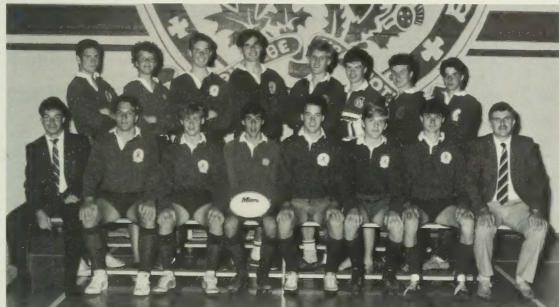

Once competition starts the season goes by so very quickly. This year we played more matches than ever, and we were well prepared for the end of season tournament late in May. Much to my surprise, the team advanced to the semi-finals, a possibility I considered remote. Much of the credit for this feat goes to the three singles players: Derek Zobelein, Matt Chisholm, and Peter Clarke. They more than anyone else played with heart and determination. All in all, a wonderful season.

UNDER 17 RUGBY

The first week of practice I rediscovered what a tremendous game rugby is, especially with the talented boys that were in the squad. Crescent narrowly defeated us in the first game, but we exacted sweet revenge at home in the last game. This was the occasion of John MacMillan's drop goal at full speed from thirty yards. Appleby and Trinity were too well drilled for us, although the latter were very surprised by our defensive play which kept their score to the lowest of the season. The Ridley game was an even competition and a draw was a fair result. We did enjoy our victories, though, and I saw many fine moves from the touchline.

Shaw and Gundy showed that they are players of outstanding ability. Blakely and MacMillan formed a solid team at half back. The three-quarters showed good handling all season; Mirkopoulos made some lovely ghosting runs through the middle and scored all the points against Ridley whilst Timms showed everybody how to make tackles that count. Alexander, Pady and McMurtry shared the full back spot and all can run and kick well. This was one of my most enjoyable coaching assignments. We are going to send some good players to the First 15 next year.

UNDER 15 RUGBY

We completed the most successful season since the inception of U15 Rugby at S.A.C. Besides twelve second year veterans, we were lucky to have many talented new players try out for the team, but unfortunately we lost seven of them early in the season through injury.

Our first match against Appleby we won 16-4. The "depowered" scrum rule that had recently been introduced into ISL games hurt us in our match against UCC. Our pack was far stronger than theirs but since scrums cannot use sustained pushes any more, we were penalized. We lost a heartbreaker 4-6. After a convincing 32-4 away win against TCS, we met Ridley on an extremely windy day. This caused havoc in our kicking game but we prevailed 11-6. The most exciting match was the final one vs Crescent - temperature in the 80's, very humid and the field as hard as rock. We were behind 3-4 until the final minutes when we were awarded a 5m scrum from which we managed to score. The conversion was successful, the final whistle blew immediately and we won 9-4.

To all the boys on the team, my thanks for a very rewarding season, especially to those who have given two years of loyal service: N. Rose, J. Inglis, N. Ellis, B. Mikol, and J. Metcalfe. We were lucky to have an assistant coach this year in the person of Mr. Duncan Sim, whose insight into the game and whose personable rapport with the boys only made the game more enjoyable for all.

UNDER 15 CRICKET

No-one can say that cricket is a boring game - not after the season we had in 1988! We had 8 games and 8 wins. Our bowlers were Chris Catrall with his thunderbolt fast bowling, and Kevan Edwards, our spin bowler. Our batsmen were David King who was always there when we needed him and Vinny DiBattista our heavy hitter.

Our MVP was Kevan Edwards who could bat, bowl, field and talk better and more reliably than the other players. Our MIP was Nick Partridge who made great steps in fielding and batting, with a great showing at bat vs TCS. Thanks to all who gave so much of their time and effort for so long. Special thanks to Mr. Juice and Mr. Robo too.

UNDER 14A CRICKET

There were two mismatches this season. Our batting and fielding overpowered the opposition in a very lop-sided game against Ridley, while we were pummelled by three, powerful, Appleby bowlers in our final game of the season. Aside from the victories, and one loss, our players represented the school well with their enthusiasm and sportsmanship. As their coach and as a teacher at S.A.C., I was very proud of them. Half of our team was new to the sport of cricket, but we still gave an excellent account of ourselves in the I.S.A.A. Marcus Gillam, the team captain, kept the team in throughout many an over with his keen eye and strong defensive batting. Nick McQuire, assistant captain and M.V.P., demonstrated his great athletic ability in batting (over thirty runs in one game), his wicket-keeping, and to his own surprise his fine bowling. Zach Math, M.I.P., started the season as a miserable bowler, but developed a powerful and accurate style in addition to his strong batting skills. Christian Stein was also a key member of the team with his super, competitive spirit in batting and bowling. Christian was also one of the most fearless fielders that I have ever seen. Jose Soares batted over 39 runs in a key game against U.C.C. and helped the team with his excellent fielding. Alex Boothby was a powerful bowler, Jon batted his best and the list goes on. Josh Ginou, Rob Keto, Bruce Ellis, Mike Kingston, Chris Thompson, Tyler Sandilands, and Tom Brooks all contributed to a successful season. One last comment about this team. They still have not reached their potential and they will come back next year more powerful than ever. 1989.....watch out!

UNDER 14B CRICKET

This year the "Under 14 B's" have been a training squad of some 22 players, from which we have drawn 11 or 12 for each match. Few in this group had much cricket experience when we started, but they have made great strides over the term. Blessed with our own field, across the "shads", it has been more like a junior cricket club than a team. It has been a treat for this coach to have so many young players to work with. What it has meant is that we are able to field two full teams, or three "7-a-side" teams, to play amongst ourselves. This makes up for the relative shortage of matches at this level. Of course, we have also found time to play our Under 14 "A" side, and although we haven't humbled them, we tied them on our second attempt, and proved we were a solid coming force. Although these notes are being written within the season still unfinished, it is clear from our first two matches against U.C.C., and our game against Ridley, that we are coming along fast. We now have a solid victory to our credit, and have established ourselves as a force in the league. I expect this squad to produce many useful players in the future, as they advance through the school.

HONOUR GUARD

At the time of Lincoln Alexander's appointment as Ontario's Lieutenant Governor, he announced an intention to take an active interest in the affairs of youth in the province. In keeping with this mandate, Mr. Alexander requested that the St. Andrew's College Highland Cadet Corps be his Guard of Honour at the opening of Parliament early this school year.

It would appear that Mr. Alexander was not the only high-ranking official supporting us, as the weather co-operated admirably - much to the relief of the 150 kilted cadets who represented St. Andrew's.

Royal Botanical Gardens

ENRICHMENT DAY

As part of Operation Enrichment, an effort to promote awareness of activities outside of school, St. Andrew's has introduced a program called Enrichment Day. There were two such days this year with plans for more in the future. In October, students visited North York Fire Department (Grade 12), Botanical Gardens (Grade 11), Toronto's ethnic neighbourhoods (Grade 10), Black Creek Pioneer Village (Grade 9) and the Metro Zoo (Grades 7 & 8).

In April, trips included visits to an agricultural and an aviation museum, Dunlap Observatory and the Planetarium (Grade 12), Metro Zoo (Grade 10), Toronto's Harbourfront (Grade 9) and the Royal Ontario Museum (Grades 7 & 8). Grade 11 students participated in an Outward Bound programme here on campus.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The Winter Carnival that took place during February this year was a great success and hopefully marked the rebirth of a great tradition at SAC. After a barbecue lunch, both upper and lower school began the first of two rounds of fun winter games, such as snow soccer, snow football, shiny hockey, the ice relays, and the wildest of them all - snow rugby-basketball! Each of the houses or clans fielded a different team for each round of each sport, so everyone got to participate and enjoy the competition. After the sports were done, the school body gathered on the lower fields to participate in the dogsled races. This involved towing the house or clan master around a course laid out in the snow on a toboggan. Lower school competed first and Mr. Whitehead was the clear winner of the clan competition. For the upper school, the race was a relay and the fresh "dogs" replaced the tired ones at each station. Mr. Jackson had to hang on for dear life to pull away with a Ramsey House win. Many thanks to whomever ordered the weather; the day was perfect and there was a healthy layer of snow on the ground. Special thanks to Kevin Worry, Damian Brooks, and Rod Boothby, whose idea this was in the first place, as well as everyone else that helped to make things run so smoothly. The day was a wonderful success, so let's look for it again next year!

ST. ANDREW'S NIGHT

HOUSE PLAYS

It's St. Andrew's Night, so after the Scotch Feast comes the Play Fest, this year with no fewer than five houses in production.

Memorial claimed the credit for the most original play, Spy versus Spy. This was a farce following the Shakespearean tradition of a play within a play: skullduggery within a production of Romeo and Juliet. Not easy to perform. Memorial staged a troupe of most capable actors, but they needed a bit more time for tuning.

Next up was New House with The Express Line. Again, not an easy play because it is so static, with all the "action" at the check-out counter at your friendly supermarket. "A lot of fun!" said Harriet. "Stunning!" added Lamar as she checked her prompt-sheet. "If only we knew our lines!" (Max). "Fantastic!" (Louie). Cast and audience all enjoyed themselves, and Toby Ross won an Acting Merit award.

A Story of Chelm had a cast of sixteen Flavellians, with special effects: feathers were still descending from the cat-run at Musical time. This play took the most time and effort, and Flavelle showed its traditional dramatic spirit. Jonathan Hart won an Acting award for his divine part as Big G. Some of the play's impact depends on an esoteric knowledge of Jewish lore; the message to all directors is surgically clear: "If it doesn't work, cut!"

Ramsey House took an original track by presenting scenes from three famous productions: Inherit the Wind, To Kill a Mockingbird and Inside a Killer's Head. Only four actors appeared, some new to the stage: Dave Somerville held us in the Chair, Ron Reardon practised the dramatic pause, Peter Van N. was an impressive Brady and Adam Neal surprised himself by winning Best Actor.

The last was judged the best, according to our adjudicator Mr. Michael Heptinstall: Sifton House cleaned up with The Actor's Nightmare, and again this was no easy script with its figures like Henry Irving from theatrical history. This was the most complete and finished of all the productions. Naz won an Acting award, Johan and Mike won for the Design, and Oliver Herbst, ready for anything, won as Director of the best play.

At the Old Boy's Dinner in May, Mr. Warren Stoddart agreed to adjudicate the competition next November. Will your House be ready? Look out for a good script! All five houses this year triumphed over self-inflicted difficulties.

CAROL SERVICE

The Carol Service was held, as every year, at St. Paul's Anglican Church in Toronto, where spectators were regaled with one of the most powerful services in the school's history.

Plaudits to Mr. Aubrey Foy, for his spectacular organ solos; Andrew Metcalfe and Sean Collins for their moving solo performances; the Folk Ensemble for their rendition of Mary's Little Boy Child. The Staff Quartet was a new addition to the service: Soprano, Mrs. Doreen Hiltz; Contralto, Mrs. Nancy Hurley; Tenor, Mr. Julian Greenwood; and Bass, Mr. Stephen Harper.

The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Harper, had its public debut. Trebles and Altos were joined by Tenors and Basses in Reginald Jacques' arrangement of an ancient German carol The Linden Tree, Martin Shaw's arrangement of Joys Seven, and David Willcocks' Resonemus Laudibus. This, and an a capella harmony verse of the Dorset Carol were offered for the enjoyment of the large congregation. This was a very good beginning for the newly re-organized group.

The sound made by the energetic singing of 450 Andreans was as thrilling as ever this year. The boys sang the "Somerset Wassail" plus their annual renditions of Amazing Grace and the Dorset Carol under the direction of Mr. John Clements.

Charles Glave and John Lorimer intoned Amazing Grace with their excellent piping. Special mention must be made of our Saxophone Quartet, trained by Mrs. Lynne Greenwood, which played Coventry Carol; and the Trumpet Duet who performed Tomorrow Shall Be My Dancing Day. Readings were given by representatives from each form.

SKI DAY

We all like to go nuts once in a while, daring ourselves to do the feats that test our noble order. For the boys at SAC, ski day offers all of this and more. Whether it's tucking all the way down a hill and hoping you survive, or doing a terrific jump while knowing that you don't know how to land properly (probably hearing the familiar sounds of cracking bones), ski day provides a change of environment and activity much needed to the monotonous boarder and day boy life at SAC. This year's ski day, as usual, went well. The atmosphere was generally jovial, and there were few injuries. Friends stayed in packs throughout the whole day, and old veterans of the ski slopes assured the rookies that the slopes are not really at 90 degree angles - only 85 degree angles. This assurance, also with the knowledge that the rookie's friends were going to take him on the hardest slopes, resulted in some nightmarish, but exhilarating experiences. Anyway, those rookies will have the chance to do the same to next year's rookies. The teachers also had a fun time and contributed much to the trip. Even Coach Ackerman, sitting in the ski lodge the whole time, was in good mood and frequently exclaimed, "Boy, I tell ya". The greatest thanks must go to Mr. Walden for the time that he spent organizing this trip. Few people understand the time and sacrifice required to successfully plan such an event. Overall, the day was magnificent, and the SAC community showed they had the ability to make the most out of wherever they go, making this year's ski day a true success.

LLOYD C. MACPHERSON HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

SAC - Laurier 10-3
SAC - Moncton 6-5
Aurora Juv. - SAC 3-0
Notre Dame - SAC 2-3
Aurora Juv. - SAC 2-4

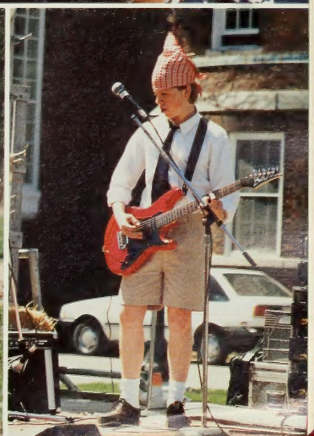

SAC entered this year's edition of the annual MacPherson Tournament flying high - favoured to repeat as York Region ISAA, and OFSSA champions. We had a good chance to win our own tournament. The opening game was a blowout in SAC's favour, and after the traditional Friday night's win (this time, over a team from Moncton), everything seemed to be in place for a gold medal. But, it was not to be. The inevitable letdown after Friday night led to a lacklustre performance in a loss to the Aurora Juveniles on Saturday. This was followed by a heartbreaking loss in overtime to the eventual champions, Notre-Dame of Quebec. Many thanks to Al Dunford, who graciously agreed to convene the tournament while on sabbatical.
